Great Naval Battle Is Impending

KAISER'S NORTH SEA DASH NOW THREATENS

British First Line Fleet Massed to Check the Advance of Teutons Into Ocean Highways

GREAT ACTIVITY DUE TO WAR STRATEGY

England Rushes Ships of All Classes to Unit Which Must Insure Allies' Control of Sea

SOMEWHERE IN THE NORTH SEA, via London, Feb. 11.—Great Britain's first line offensive fleet, an incomparable combination of speed and gun power, ready for instant action, was inspected yesterday by a party of French and American correspondents, and a representative of the Associated Press was permitted to view from the bridge of a torpedo boat the naval unit which is expected to meet the first shock of a German attack.

In the fleet were virtually all the veteran fighting craft which have been in action in this war, but they showed few scars with the exception of an occasional dent in the protection of the super-dreadnaughts, these huge fighting machines held the premier position in the British navy, in which warship speed is now regarded as the first and most important of naval strategy.

As the launch with the visitors on board turned toward the line of battle cruisers against the horizon they could see the "eyes" of the fleet, in the form of a few prowling destroyers, which kept up incessant watch, not only to protect their mighty sisters from submarine attack, but to catch the first view of any adventurous German warship which might poke its nose into the open North Sea.

Looming through the mist could be seen the giant tripod masts which identified the fleet as including the very latest type of battle cruisers, and soon the launch was at the foot of the boarding-ladder of a huge battle cruiser, which was the flagship of the fleet.

The party, which lunched as guests of the division rear admiral, who was using the cruiser as his flagship, then was taken on board the cruiser Lion, which was Admiral Beatty's flagship in the Dogger Bank battle. With the exception of a dent in her forward turret armor and a similar scar just above the water-line, this show vessel of the British navy displays little sign of the terrific hammering she got when three German battle-cruisers came to her.

LIGHT CRUISERS. Carefully mounted in the compartment is an 11-inch unexploded shell which the Seydlitz hurled through the Lion's armor below the water-line. No evidence has ever been found to justify the story that the Lion was torpedoed.

The stern was left of the 12-inch shell which blew in the bulkhead of the admiral's quarters after going through the deck except the casing and cap occupying the place of honor amongst the Lion's trophies. Even the captain's bath tub, which was hurled overboard by the explosion of an 8-inch shell which probably came from the Blucher, has been replaced. The engine room of the Lion showed no sign of the ship ever having been in battle.

A torpedo-boat picked up a por-

'PHANTOM' IS SEAL ROAD MYSTERY CLEARED DOG LIVES IN CREEK

The mystery of the phantom dog of San Leandro which for weeks baffled the entire community is revealed.

Until the discovery of George Warren, Fruitvale druggist, was made last night superstitious fears caused many of the residents to refuse to pass along the "haunted" road near Lake Chabot, where the mystery canine was supposed to frequent.

Weird barks and plaintive growls and whining, the source of which could not be discovered, caused people passing along this road to stop and investigate. Motorists believed they had run over a dog, but searched in vain for the injured canine. Pedestrians after dark were startled to hear moans and barks as though proceeding from a dog in distress, but no trace of any animal could be found. Even in daylight the origin of the bark heard over the fields remained a mystery.

George Warren solved the strange barking once and for all last night and his discovery was startling. While out motoring after midnight he heard upon the "haunted" road and heard the barking and whining. He thought he had run over a dog and on going back saw a dark form lying on the road. Cautiously putting off his hand he encountered a slippery skin, decidedly uncannily like "feet."

Warren turned his auto headlights on the animal and the glare reflected from the wet hide aroused his brown eyes of a big seal. The animal had laboriously waded its way over a field from a small creek, a tributary of San Leandro creek. In this little watercourse the seal had been making its home and it was from there that the barks and whines issued to startle passersby.

The seal had probably found its way into the creek from Lake Chabot during the heavy rains. Many years ago a number of seals were placed in the lake and it is believed the wanderer was one of this herd.

Bulgaria to Quit With Saloniki Siege

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Sofia dispatches reaching Amsterdam and forwarded by Reuter's correspondent, quote the Bulgarian minister of war as saying that as long as the siege of Saloniki is continued the war will be terminated, so far as Bulgaria is concerned, and that the nation will fight no longer unless attacked.

A newspaper, organ of the Bulgarian government, published an article this week asserting that Bulgaria had the right to invade Greece for the purpose of attacking the French and British troops there.

Mellen to Tell of Brandeis' Fitness

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven railroad, will be asked by the Judiciary sub-committee of the Senate to appear next week in connection with its inquiry into the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis to the Supreme court. The committee decided today to ask Mellen to testify after they had examined testimony offered yesterday by C. W. Barron of Boston, who declared that Brandeis had once been "bribed to aid in wrecking the New Haven railroad."

War Order Made on Use of Petroleum

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The Morning Post's Christiania correspondent says the government has ordered the expropriation of all the petroleum in the country, which is to be distributed hereafter under the direction of the government food commission. This action, the correspondent says, is the result of the growing scarcity of petroleum.

ENGLAND IS BLAMED FOR SEA DECISION

Germany Says Justified in Destroying Armed Vessels

Great Britain Believes War of Reprisals Is to Be Begun

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—The Germania, commenting on the German government's announcement that it intends to treat armed merchantmen as warships, declares that it places England in a "pillory before the world," and continues:

"The manner in which England has been unmasked by the publication of the German memorandum is more startling than anything else hitherto made known. The British method of warfare has been exposed as distasteful to her enemies and to neutrals."

The Germania asserts the course decided upon by Germany respecting her inescapable duty, must lead to a sharpening of naval warfare. Responsibility for new developments, it contends, will rest on the British government alone.

The government's decision to treat armed merchantmen of hostile countries as warships has been received generally with the heartiest approval. The press of all parties expresses the belief that neutrals now will be compelled to avoid all merchantmen of nations at war against Germany and also to treat such vessels when in their harbors as warships, granting them only the usual right to a limited stay for taking on coal, etc.

Capitain I. Persius says in the Tageblatt that the copy of the British admiralty instructions concerning the operations against submarines will open the eyes of neutrals in regard to the merchantmen armed "for defense only," and that neutrals will treat them as warships. The new procedure, he says, will make the way easier for the submarine, although there still is the possibility that Germany's enemies will fly false colors.

The Kreuz Zeitung asserts the memorandum opens the way to a settlement of the Lusitania case and also abolishes the possibility of protecting hostile ships by placing Americans on board. It refers to the flying of false colors and continues:

"The German neutrals permit this deceptive use of their colors. No matter whether they cannot or will not stop it, they must bear the responsibility. If we are to treat all enemy merchantmen which are armed as belligerents, we cannot stop because a neutral flag is used wrongfully."

ENGLISH PAPERS SEE 'REPRISAL'

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Although the new German memorandum reached the London morning papers too late for extended editorial comment, the manner in which it is featured in all the newspapers indicates the sensation it is likely to cause in England and the allied countries.

The Mail declares that it undoubtedly is Germany's long threatened reprisal for the Baralong incident and gives it a seven-column headline reading "New U-Boat Murder Campaign to Start March First."

The Times comments: "Germany has warned neutrals not to travel in the allied liners after March 1. This clearly indicates that our vessels are to be attacked without warning and doubtless represents the reprisals threatened for the Baralong incident."

The German memorandum whines that the Germans did before the war. It takes as if hitherto pirates had warned their victims.

BOPP EVADES CUSTODY OF U.S. MARSHAL

Throngs Wait to See the German Officials Arrested

Indicted Men Frightened by Movie Clan

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Fearing to face a battery of moving picture cameras, flanked by a guard of newspaper photographers, Franz Bopp, German consul-general; Baron Eckhart von Schack, vice-consul; Lieutenant Wilhelm von Brincken, consulate attaché; M. A. Hall, Turkish consul, and Henry W. E. Kaufmann, chancellor of the German consulate, failed to surrender themselves to Marshal James Holohan this morning. A crowd of several hundred interested spectators thronged the entrance to the federal courthouse building at Seventh and Mission streets, awaiting the arrival of the distinguished officials.

Word had gone forth that they would appear at 10 o'clock and surrender themselves in connection with charges of conspiracy to destroy munitions plants returned against the first three named and violations of neutrality preferred against the others.

With the exception of Lieutenant von Brincken, who will have to put up additional bonds in the sum of $2500, Consul General Bopp and the other members of his staff, as well as the Turkish consul, will be released on their recognizance.

The fact that this is the first time in the history of the United States that a foreign consul has been accused of conspiring against the country's general peace and order, has lent added interest to the persons of the accused.

RELEASED ON BONDS

All of those indicted with the exception of Julius Rothchild, who is in the country, James Flood, who is in the Orient, Louis J. Smith, who will be a government witness and who is traveling, and J. H. Van Koolbergen, under arrest in Canada, surrendered themselves this morning and were released on $1000 bonds. Several of the crew of the steamer Sacramento are scattered and have not yet been found.

These will be called Monday before Judge Dooling, at which time the officials, high and low, must appear. Attorney Theodore R. Keane, with Judge Matt J. Sullivan and Attorney Ira Campbell, represent most of the alleged neutrality violators, and

Life Loss Charged To Edison Employee

Submarine Disaster Is Subject of Report

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Miller Reese Hutchison, the representative of the Edison Storage Battery Company, was severely criticized today by Lieutenant J. C. Fisher, judge advocate in the summing up before the naval court of inquiry which has been investigating the disaster to the United States submarine E-2 January 25, in which five men lost their lives.

Lieutenant Fisher execrated Lieutenant Charles M. Cooke, the commander of the submarine, and the members of the crew, who, he said, were merely acting as agents of the Edison Company in carrying a test of the batteries. He also called attention to the fact that a violent explosion had taken place on the E-2 two days prior to the disaster. He condemned Hutchison for going ahead with the test "when he knew of the possibility of trouble."

The judge advocate likewise criticized the Edison Company, which he said had not supplied adequate construction in the use of the batteries. The court will render its findings to Secretary Daniels and they will be made public in Washington.

GARRISON MAY URGE OWN IDEAS RESIGNATION IS DUE TO PRESIDENT

Successor of War Secretary Not Named

Nation's Head to Work Out His Own Army Policies

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Secretary Garrison has resigned from the cabinet because President Wilson declined to insist without compromise upon the adoption of the continental army plan by Congress. The resignation was rendered and accepted yesterday, and, with Garrison, the assistant secretary of war, Henry C. Breckinridge, left the service of the government.

Today the President feels himself personally in charge of the administration's plans for strengthening the army and working out a definite military policy. He has not selected a successor to Garrison and it is regarded as probable that even after the new head of the war department is named the President will continue to handle the preparedness plans to a great extent himself.

The resignation and its acceptance by the President are disclosed in long correspondence made public between them. The correspondence revealed that while the secretary left the cabinet principally because the President would not irrevocably support the continental army plan, his opposition to the administration program for setting a definite time for Filipino independence, as outlined in Senator Clarke's amendment to the Philippine bill, was an important factor.

Assistant Secretary Breckinridge, who shared Secretary Garrison's views, resigned because of loyalty to his chief. His resignation also was accepted.

Major-General Scott, chief of staff of the army, automatically became secretary of war at interim.

The cabinet met today with a vacant chair for the first time since Bryan's resignation. The departure of Garrison with its possible effects on the administration and the preparedness program was discussed thoroughly.

The resignation of Garrison, it was said at the White House today, will have no effect on the President's advocacy of the principles underlying the continental army plan, for, it was said, he believes firmly that the nation must have an adequate reserve army under the control of the federal government. Members of Congress, virtually, have convinced the President, however, that the continental army plan as originally framed by Secretary Garrison has no chance of being approved.

The cabinet remained in session nearly two hours today and it was understood that nearly the entire time was devoted to discussion of Democratic policies, including the preparedness plans of the administration. Garrison's resignation was a com-

LANE CONSIDERED MOST LIKELY CHOICE FOR PLACE

While Secretary Lane is being considered in official circles as a likely choice to succeed former Secretary of War Garrison, it was understood that the President has under consideration the names of two or three others and will not make an appointment before weighing their qualifications carefully.

The President has made up his mind to appoint a Democrat to the place. It was said in well-informed circles that he will not be from New Jersey nor from the South.

Former Governor Walsh of Massachusetts, Secretary Houston, former Governor Harmon of Ohio and former Mayor Baker of Cleveland were added to the names being discussed. Former Governor Adams of Colorado was being talked of as a possible successor to Secretary Lane.

When General Scott was notified of his designation as secretary of war he was told there was some interest to know if he shared the views of his former chief about the value of the continental army and compulsory military service. The general replied with emphasis that he did.

Reports that there might be other resignations from the cabinet were met with denials.

The President, his friends said, worked with congressional leaders on the currency, and other bills and in making some concessions was able to get bills which he finally approved.

He still feels that it is best to pursue the same policy in dealing with the army and Philippine questions. It is known that one of Secretary Garrison's principal reasons for his resignation was that only a federal continental army, instead of a reorganized National Guard, could be the main military dependence of the nation, was his belief that some day the United States may be called upon to defend the Mexican colonies, in that event he foresaw the National Guard might not be available for use outside of the United States before a declaration of war.

Upon the contention on the one hand that the continental army, which is entirely untrained, was the nation's only reliance, and the position on the other, that no one plan could be enforced upon Congress, President Wilson and his secretary of war parted official company.

Garrison's resignation was a com-

Continental Plan Cause of Cabinet Split

Action Threatens the Party's Political Fate

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Landley M. Garrison, former Secretary of War, announced here today that he intended to retire "absolutely" from politics and public life. He said he would not discuss his resignation from any political angle.

Garrison intimated, however, that he might "do something" in the matter of giving support to the movement in favor of a continental army, the issue upon which his resignation hinged. This intimation came in response to a question put by newspapermen as to whether he would give his moral support to those who continue urging the policy of a continental army.

"I cannot answer that question," said the former secretary, "because it would hinge upon politics. I say this to you now so that later if I do decide to do something you will not say that I tried to deceive you."

"I intend to retire absolutely from politics and public life. Get it out of your heads that there's anything political in my action."

Garrison was asked if he intended to "follow the example of Bryan and come out publicly against any of President Wilson's policies."

"Absolutely not," was the reply. "Would you accept the nomination for governor of New Jersey?" was another question asked.

"I would not accept the nomination for governor of New Jersey if the certificate of election was handed to me on a silver platter," he said. Garrison said he had no knowledge of the intention of any other members of the cabinet to resign.

In respect to his own resignation he said he had consulted with no other cabinet member, although Assistant Secretary Breckinridge was aware of his intention.

"I assumed," he said, "if Mr. Breckinridge remained in the same state of mind he would resign also. As to his future plans Garrison said he expected to resume the practice of law, but where and when he was not certain."

plete surprise to official Washington generally. He made no personal explanation. Several hours before the official announcement he had boarded a train with his wife for New York and word had been passed at the department that he had gone for an indefinite stay.

The acute difference of opinion which led to the break began early in the war.

Berlin Reports on West Tell Gains

French Fail in Artois; Russ Stopped

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—The repulse of four successive attacks made by the French in efforts to recapture trenches they had lost northwest of Vimy, in the Artois, was announced today. In the Artois, the French had been in the Artois army headquarters. The French also failed in assaults to the south of the Somme. The official statement says:

"Northwest of Vimy the French, after artillery preparations lasting for hours, attempted four times to recapture the trenches they had lost. All their attacks failed."

"On the Aisne and in the Champagne there have been local artillery duels of a lively character. One of our captive balloons escaped without its crew and drifted over the enemy lines near Vailly."

"Eastern theater: 'North of Lake Driviaty the advance of a strong Russian division was repulsed.'"

Wolf of Wall Street Must Serve Sentence

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals decided today the motion of David Lamar, the so-called "Wolf of Wall Street," to reinstate his appeal against his conviction of impersonating Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania in an effort to defraud J. P. Morgan & Co. and the United States Steel Corporation. According to United States District Attorney Marshall, this ends Lamar's fight to prevent the execution of his two-year sentence of imprisonment at Atlanta.

Peace Council Head Says Germans Aided

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—W. H. Kramer, former vice-president of Labor's National Peace Council, today told the House Judiciary sub-committee investigating representative Buchanan's impeachment charges against United States Attorney Marshall at New York that the council's funds had come from German sources. He discovered that, he said, after he had been connected with the organization several weeks and resigned.

Wilson Virtually Wins Treaty Fight

Nicaraguan Convention 'O. K.' Expected

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—President Wilson virtually won his fight for ratification of the Nicaraguan treaty in the executive session of the Senate today. Some of its most vigorous opponents said the administration had won enough votes to command the necessary two-thirds and they predicted its ratification tomorrow.

The administration opponents, while they conceded the Nicaraguan convention would go through, reiterated that they did not expect a ratification of the Colombian treaty to pay an indemnity, and expressed regret for the partition of Panama.

The Nicaraguan treaty proposed to pay Nicaragua $3,000,000 for inter-oceanic canal rights and naval bases in the Bay of Fonseca. Protests against the naval base feature have been made by Salvador, which contends it would violate the sovereignty of Honduras.

Assistance in Costa Rica, Salvador and Honduras that none of their rights will be violated by the United States acquiring a naval base in the Bay of Fonseca will be ratified in the Nicaraguan treaty which the Senate is expected to pass tomorrow.

Kaiser Wants Part Of Belgium, Report

View Directly Reverse of Word From Italy

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Recent information gathered in government circles in Berlin is that Germany holds that a portion of Belgium should be annexed to Germany in any settlement of the war which is undertaken. This view is directly the reverse of the recent report coming through Italy, that Germany had offered to evacuate Belgium as a condition of a separate peace.

There is no confirmation of the report of Germany's willingness to evacuate Belgium, but the contrary view that Germany desires to retain part of that country probably will be made known in confidential addresses going to American authorities indicating a less favorable outlook than had been expected.

'TOOLHOUSE' THIEF SENTENCED

John W. Whitney was sentenced to serve fifteen months in San Quentin today by Superior Judge Ogden, following his plea of guilty to a charge of burglary committed last Christmas. The defendant broke into a toolhouse and took away implements.

UNION SAVINGS BANK BUILDING SOLD

Charles T. Redolph, banker and capitalist, today became owner of the Union Savings Bank building at the northeast corner of Thirteenth street and Broadway. The transaction was completed this morning, following the action of the directors of the bank yesterday in voting that the sale be effected.

Redolph was one of the vice-presidents of the Union Savings Bank and it was taken over by the Central National Bank several months ago. Under his ownership the one-time bank building will be continued as a store and office building. It is understood that considerably more than half a million dollars is concerned in the purchase of the building.

Cruiser Destruction Affirmed and Denied

LONDON, Feb. 15.—A Berlin official statement, released here today, claims that a British cruiser has been sunk by a German torpedo boat and another British cruiser torpedoed. The British official press bureau denies this.

Court Sentences Two S. F. 'Straw Bond' Men

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Gus Guilfeather and Joseph Staughnessy, convicted conspirators in the so-called straw bond cases, were each given ten months in the county jail by Superior Judge Dunne today.

HIKER WALKS FROM N. Y. TO OAKLAND

Second Trip Across Continent Is Made in Record Time.

Robert Burns, of Eureka, walked into Oakland today, with the claim that he has shattered all previous records for long-distance walking.
He is here from a walking trip to New York and back again. His arrival in Oakland completed the seven-thousand eight hundred and twenty-second mile of his journey afoot.

Burns left San Francisco for New York City on May 24, 1915. He followed the Lincoln highway throughout the entire journey. He arrived in New York on September 21, just eighty days after leaving San Francisco. This is the shortest time less than the time taken by Edward Payson Weston in his trans-continental hike several years ago.

That completed 3540 miles for Burns. He left New York City on October 1 and started home, coming over the Southern highway and the Santa Fe trail. He arrived in Los Angeles January 25 of this year, after walking eighty-five days. Incontro-vertible proof that he has walked is provided by Burns through the medium of a book which he has filled with letters from various Chambers of Commerce all along the routes he traveled. It also contains a letter signed by Joseph Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, attesting that the hiker had visited the White House.

Burns went to San Francisco from Oakland, and will leave that city in a few days to continue his walking.
For he is not tired yet, he says,
and intends to do it all over again.
He will take the northern route this time, however, walking from here to Seattle, Wash., and from there easterly to Maine.

He made his way through the use of simple advertising devices for hotels and business houses which he visited in the cities on his route.

BURGLARS TRY TO ROB FOUR STORES

Burglars attempted to effect entrance to four places in Twelfth street during the night, using brass and bits and jammer to break into the rear of the establishments. They were frustrated in each instance and left before they had gained entrance at any of the places.

At the Columbia Outfitting company, 355 Twelfth street, they forced half a dozen holes around the lock of the rear door. They attempted by using a jimmy to gain entrance to Schuler's cafe, 353 Twelfth street, and also in the rear of the Compass saloon, 359 Twelfth street.
The police say that they had continued their efforts at any one place they would apparently have been successful, but that by giving up in one instance and trying in another, they botched the job.

Edward N. Gray, 2905 East Tenth street, reported that his home was entered during the night by a burglar who jimmied a front window and took jewelry and $4.50 which was contained in a small box.

Gray May, 3208 East Tenth street, reported that his room was entered during the night and clothing stolen.

LINCOLN'S MEMORY HONORED BY PUPILS

Exercises in Commemoration of Martyred President Held in School.

With an elaborate program in which school choruses sang patriotic airs, members of the Grand Army of the Republic spoke on the stirring days of the struggle between the North and the South, and students read and recited the immortal words of the martyred President, exercises in commemoration of Lincoln were held today in every school in the city. The most notable of the programs were in the high schools, but every school held observance of the day.
A member of the Grand Army was delegated to each school as orator of the day, and Secretary Joseph E. Caine of the Spanish-American war, and several other Spanish war veterans and prominent citizens assisted in the day's celebration.

At the Fremont High school an elaborate program was held at the beginning of the afternoon school session, led by the high school band and the glee club of sixty voices, the school chorus sang patriotic airs, following which, Donald Gillies was heard in an address. Lowell's Commencement Ode was recited by Sylvia Sablin, and "My Captain, Oh, My Captain," by "Walk Whiteman," was recited by Marielette Munzer and then sung by the school chorus of 1000 voices.

Lincoln's Gettysburg address was recited by R. Elwyn Manhart, and the address of the day was given by A. Bruntrager, of the Grand Army. "America" was sung by the school chorus.

At the Oakland High school Rev. William J. Van Horn delivered a stirring address on Abraham Lincoln and his place in American history, and Rev. William Keener Towner was heard at the Technical High School on the same subject. Patriotic airs were sung by the school choruses in both schools. At the University High School Nelson Jones and D. A.
Eberley of the Spanish War Veterans,
Mrs. J. B. Woodhams and Mrs. Ella Lewis were heard.

At the Grant School the celebration was opened with a patriotic melody by the school orchestra, and Joy Harris was heard in a recitation. Spellman Collins and Chester Weaver were heard in songs, and Edmund Arnold recited "Lincoln's Boy-hood." Richard Jensen recited "Lincoln's Declaration" and Yeachen Sturtevant recited the Gettysburg address.

Private Hood of the Grand Army spoke and the school chorus was heard in "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Joseph E.
Caine, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and a veteran of the Spanish-American war, was the speaker at the Durant School, as was Mrs. M. S. Cox of the Grand Army and Women's Relief Corps,
and Mr. and Mrs. W. Saverio. Mrs.
Carrie Muller, president of Lyon Relief
Corps, was the speaker at the Franklin
School, as was also Major E. W. Woodward.

and Mr. and Mrs. W. Saverio. Mrs.
Carrie Muller, president of Lyon Relief
Corps, was the speaker at the Franklin
School, as was also Major E. W. Woodward.

Whether the man with the glaring eyes forced the girl to walk beside him and then compelled her to drink poison or whether she killed herself, is another question that is puzzling the authorities.
Any possible connection of the girl's father, William Orpet, son of E. Orpet, head gardener for City of Alameda, and now a janitor in the University of Wisconsin, was eliminated when it was found that Orpet had not been out of Madison.

The girl died of poison, but no container was found near the body, although crystals were found in her hair.
What kind of acid was used and why it was used, is the subject of an investigation by the police. Coroner John L.
Taylor last night impaneled a jury, heard a few witnesses and adjourned the inquest until today to give detectives time to follow every clue.

That the poison was forced on the girl, or at least given her by the man, is indicated by the fact that her companion went back to the body after the girl was dead, and presumably took away the poison bottle.

COMMERCE MEN HEAR WILSON TALK

President Urges a New Scientific Tariff
Board

U. S. Merchants Are Told
They Must Forget
Traditions

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—President Wilson told the Chamber of Commerce of the United States last night that America needed a real scientific tariff board,
and he thought it was going to get it,
that it needed a real merchant marine,
and that it was absolutely necessary
some legislation should be made at once to get that, too; and that, had it not been for the effectiveness of the federal reserve law as a business preparedness measure, there was no telling what commercial disaster would have overwhelmed
the United States with the present war.
Of the prospect for keeping the country at peace, he said that, while no immediate international crisis faced the nation, "we are merely holding trouble at arms' length."

TARIFF TALK CHEERED.
The President's reference to the tariff board and the merchant marine were greeted with unanimous applause by members of the chamber and their friends at a dinner closing the organization's annual convention. His reference to his western tour also evoked a demonstration.

"I am not afraid," he said, "of the slow verdict of history with regard to the neutrality of history with regard to the neutrality of the United States, and I believe we are justified in expecting every degree of patience in making clear what our position is and how sincerely
we are determined not to allow this quarrel to become ours in any part. But we are merely holding this trouble at arms' length and trying to keep our judgment cool. All the rest of the world is hot,
and it may be that the flames will extend to us."

SCIENTIFIC BOARD.
The President assailed the tardiness of American business men in the past to broaden the commercial vision beyond the boundaries of this country. The war, he said, had "thrust America into the economic leadership of the world," despite this. There were many instrumentalities, however, which America needed sorely,
he said. One of them related to the tariff.

"We ought to have a real scientific tariff board, and I think we are going to have it," he said. He reiterated his declaration that he had changed his mind about the need of this because world affairs had wholly altered during the past fifteen months. His greatest difficulty, he thought, would be in obtaining men for the board who were both capable and non-partisan. He knew of only one eligible.

"I am not interested in any doctrine of protection," he said, "and I am not interested in any doctrine of free trade.
I have been a college professor and I know why—because there is nothing in either doctrine. The only thing interesting is the facts."

MERCHANT MARINE.
"Another instrumentality which I hope we shall make ready to get as soon as possible is a merchant marine. I have hoped for a long time that ships would be built by Americans, but there have been no violent symptoms of that hope being realized. It is absolutely necessary that we should make a beginning in some way."

"Government construction or operation of ships had been assailed as revolutionary," the President said. "I am not afraid of any kind of revolution that is useful." He added: "I do not care by which process the goods are delivered, but they have got to be delivered. We cannot hold our whole economic life stagnant because we are afraid to try an experiment. I am not afraid of trying an experiment if we place our affairs in the hands of competent men."

CONVENTION ENDS.
The Chamber closed its three-day annual convention with the adoption of resolutions calling upon the railroads and their employees to adjust their wage controversy by arbitration and the ratification of a program of national defense which proposes universal military training, an increased navy and the creation of a council of national defense to coordinate, when needed, all the nation's forces, fighting, industrial, commercial and scientific.

Other resolutions adopted provided for a referendum to the Chamber's membership of 705 business organizations throughout the country on the desirability of providing pensions for Federal civil service employees and of amending the Federal Constitution to permit the President to veto specific items of appropriation bills.

Elimination of objectionable riders to these bills, which the President cannot veto now without disapproving the entire bill, it was urged, would be accomplished through such an amendment.
R. G. Rhett, former mayor of Charlestown, S. C., today was elected president of the chamber. All other officers were re-elected.

Officers of the Y. M. C. A. were elected last night by the new board of directors, when Ralph T. Fisher was again chosen as president for the coming year.
C. H. J. Truman named secretary of the board and E. T. Lotter chosen treasurer.
Robert Robertson was elected vice-president.

The new board of directors was chosen Monday night when six members were elected at the general meeting, and reports on the progress of the association received.

Fisher was re-elected as president, having served during the last term, and is also a re-elected member of the directors. Truman, R. B. Taylor and H. H.
Gribben are also re-elected members to the directorate. W. J. Burpee, assistant district attorney, is a new director for the three-year term, succeeding the late
L. G. Burpee. L. H. Kibbe was elected as the successor to A. W. Moore, resigned.

Violent Battle Rages Along Belgian Front

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 11.—A dispatch from Ghent to the Echo Belge says that on the Belgian front, between Tynes and Armentieres, a violent artillery battle has been in progress for ten days. The Germans are busy strengthening their lines, but the opinion prevails that they have postponed the large offensive movement until the weather is more favorable.
Allied armies are developing unprecedented activity and constantly shelling camps, artillery parks and military buildings in the hands of the Germans. Camp Houthulst, the dispatch says, finally was visited during the last week by forty-seven raiding aviators who did considerable damage to German military property.

The Elswick Manor sailed from is owned by the Elswick Steamship Company of Newcastle and is of 3942

Redding Is After Three Meetings

Lodge Conventions Will Be Sought

REDDING, Feb. 11.—Redding is out to bring the state meetings of three prominent fraternal orders to this city in 1917.
—Native Sons, Fraternal Order of Eagles
and Knights of Pythias.

A joint committee of three from each of the local lodges held a meeting to plan the campaign and to raise the necessary pledges of funds. It is judged almost positively that the Eagles and Knights of Pythias will hold their 1917 conventions in Redding, and the Native Sons have virtually promised to hold their state session here.

Briand to Cement Military Co-operation

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A closing of the bonds between Italy and the other allies is considered as certain to result from the mission of Premier Briand of France to Italy, according to the general tenor of the comment in the morning newspapers.
Among the immediate results expected will be a closer military co-operation in the Balkans. Italy, it is said, will send troops to Saloniki, with the object of showing that there no longer exists any difference of policy among the allies on account of special national questions and that all such questions will equally interest the allies, all of whom will cooperate for their common solution. Another result which the newspapers say is to come will be the establishment of a diplomatic council of the governments of the allies, with seat in Paris, on the lines of the military council. This diplomatic council is to be composed of all the Ambassadors of the allies in Paris, with Premier Briand as president.

Copper and Nitrogen to Determine War

ROME, Feb. 11.—Albert Thomas, the French under-secretary of war and munitions, speaking to the members of the Italian press yesterday, said:

"This is a war of copper and nitrogen, since our struggle with the enemy is, above all, a competition in arms, munitions and chemistry.
France alone has 750,000 workers, including 120,000 women, employed in these departments, and on the French front the British and French supplies now surpass those of Germany. Our superiority will be altogether overwhelming as soon as Great Britain is able to produce twice the quantity of munitions produced by us."

GERMANY BLAMES ENGLAND FOR ACT	Statesmen Urged To Plan Defenses	GARRISON QUILTS ON ARMY POLICY
---	---	---

In the year, when opposition to the continental army plan began developing in Congress. There had been a the secretary of war leaving the cabinet, but they never were countenanced in official quarters. The secretary everywhere was regarded as one of the strong men of the administration upon whom the President leaned in the difficult situations, both domestic and international, which have marked his administration.

CORRESPONDENCE OUT.
The circumstances which led up to the resignation are detailed in the secretary's correspondence with the President, which was made public last night by the Public House. The ident by the White House. The President, the letters disclose, believes that the training, organization and control of a military reserve should be under immediate federal direction, but is not "irrevocably or dogmatically committed to any one plan." He wrote Garrison that he could not force any specific plan on Congress.

and added: "I must welcome a frank interchange of views and a patient and thorough comparison of all the methods proposed for obtaining the objects we all have in view."

Garrison's contention that only the plans of the war department could be considered seemed to the President

ment "wholly unjustifiable." Garrison considered "reliance upon the militia for national defense as unjustifiable and as imperiling the nation's safety." In resigning he wrote the President:

HOPELESSLY DISAGREED.
 "It is evident that we hopelessly dis-

Garrison characterized the Clarke amendment to the Philippine bill providing conditionally for the independence of the islands within four years "an amendment to the duty of this nation and a breach of trust for the Filipinos." The President replied:

was his judgment that the Clarke amendment was "unwise at this time," but added it would be clearly most inadvisable for me to take the position that I must dissent from that action should both houses of Congress concur in a bill embodying that amendment."

He said he must withhold judgment until the final action was before him in definite form.

On January 12, Secretary Garrison wrote the President, "we are facing a critical juncture with respect to the military part of the national defense program," and declared he felt the situation was dangerous.

that unless the situation is dealt with promptly and effectively, we can indulge in no reasonable expectation of any acceptable result."

SITUATION WORSE.

"The situation was rendered worse," he added, "by the presence of state troops, raised, officered, trained and equipped by the state."

He declared that if a policy based upon the reliance on state troops was adopted "not only had no advance been made from the deplorable and inexcusable situation in which we have so long been, but an effective block had been placed across the pathway toward a proper settlement."

The secretary severely criticized the national defense plans of Chairman Hay of the House military committee.

"In my judgment the effect of the enactment of Mr. Hay's program would be to set back the whole cause of legitimate, honest, national de-

Garrison declared further that Hay had the power of dealing with a subject concerning which "the rest of the House has no knowledge and about which it has never concerned itself," and suggested that Hay's proposal of settling this matter by voting money to the members of the state troops appealed to the "direct personal, political interest of the members."

The views of the President and Garrison were reviewed in other letters, which culminated in the offering and acceptance of the secretary's resignation.

Rotary Members Plan Social Gatherings

"Ladies' Day" at the Rotary Club luncheon in the Hotel Oakland yesterday, which proved one of the biggest successes of the season, will be followed by several other social gatherings, according to members of the club. Committees are now working on plans for a theater party and other affairs for the near future.

Edward Allan Forbes, secretary of the State Market Commission, was the guest yesterday at the luncheon, speaking on the work now before the state officials in their plan for reducing the high cost of living. He said the commission was seeking not only a fair price for the producer but also for the consumer, and outlined the ultimate plan for state markets in all large cities. The plan, he said, eliminated the middleman's profits, price the produce to the housewife at a decidedly lower cost as a result.

SECRETARY DANIELS ORDERS NEW CODE BOOK

KIRKPATRICK TO PLEAD 'GUILTY'

Torpedo Destroyer Hull's Japanese Steward to Be Placed on Stand.

A new naval code book, to supersede that at present in use, the secrets of which the Federal officials fear may have come into the possession of foreign naval authorities through the loss of the valuable volume from the torpedo boat destroyer Hull, has been ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, according to advices received today by naval men stationed on San Francisco bay.

The new book will be prepared immediately, that no delay may be lost in throwing into the discard the old battle time secret code of the navy, replacing them with a set which would not be interpreted by the officers of a foreign government, a condition possible at this time if the suspicions of the United States naval officers should prove to be true.

All preparations are complete for the court martial of Lieutenant Herbert A. Jones, who was commander of the Hull when the code book disappeared last August, and Ensign Robert D. Kirkpatrick, in whose charge the volume was at the time it disappeared. The hearing will be held aboard the battleship Oregon, whose commander, Captain Reeves, has been ordered to preside over the hearing.

WILL PLEAD "GUILTY."

Ensign Kirkpatrick said yesterday that he would enter a plea of guilty when arraigned before the court martial explaining that there is no other course open to him, as the book is lost. He gave out the following statement yesterday:

"This is not a bad jam that I am in. It is not so serious as the general idea of it seems to be. I am not losing any weight over it. It was not the general signal book that was lost. Of course, a court martial is not a pleasant incident, but I believe everything will come out all right."

"It was not until yesterday that I knew I was going to be court-martialed. When I was ordered up here I was on the cruiser Chattanooga, doing patrol duty off the coast of Mexico. I came home under the impression that I was to be a witness."

JAPANESE TO BE CALLED.

"The regulations permit me to retain civil counsel if I so desire. But I have decided to be represented by a naval officer—Paymaster E. H. Douglas, U. S. N., who is on the supply ship Glacier, now at Alameda.

ENSIGN KIRKPATRICK.

Major Mitchell, of the United States Marine Corps, is going to serve as counsel for Lieutenant Jones, who was in command of the Hull at the time the book was lost.

"I do not know how many witnesses there will be, so I cannot make an accurate forecast of the duration of the court-martial. But I don't think it will take long. I think it might be over quickly. I suppose the Jap boy, Moto, will be a witness, but I have no idea how important or otherwise his testimony will be. I have not thought much about him."

OPPOSED TO ORIENTALS.

"I cannot say what Lieutenant Jones is going to do, but I am going to plead guilty. Certainly. Why not? The book is lost. Nobody denies that. But everything will come out all right, I hope."

It has developed since the announcement that E. Moto, the Japanese steward, was to be one of the witnesses called at the hearing, that many high naval officers are opposed to the policy of permitting aliens in the navy.

Captain Wilson I. Davenny, field secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, who is now in San Francisco, discussed this phase of the matter when he said:

"The critical situation in which the entire naval arm of the government has been placed may be traced to a supreme folly that continues to obtain in the naval policy of the United States."

"I venture this observation," continued Captain Davenny, "that an evening with a commander of the Navy at the New Willard Hotel in Washington in December last."

"I had remarked to the commander that I was aboard the battleship Wyoming during the most recent mobilization in the Hudson and was surprised and shocked to note that Orientals were still employed in intimate relations to the daily life of the officers in command. It seemed to me a practice that could be widely abandoned."

"I expressed myself with some earnestness to my companion of the navy, and ventured the suggestion that I presumed the practice had in recent months been abated. To my surprise he said I was mistaken and that it still obtained."

"He agreed with me fully that the time had arrived, and was considerably past, when the United States could no longer afford, as a matter of prudence and safety, to tolerate the presence of aliens in the service as civilians on board its ships of war. He expressed to me in fervid terms the hope that men outside the navy, who could speak, would voice, in the most effective way, a righteous

STATE EXCHEQUER TO GET ESTATES

Unclaimed Property in Alameda County Will Net $5,824.88.

Unclaimed estates in Alameda county which will revert to the state are valued at $5,824.88, according to a report issued by Controller John S. Chambers, who has requested the attorney-general to commence actions to provide for its payment into the treasury.

In thirteen counties there is a total of $43,416.66 due the state, according to the controller who has sent out notices to the different county officials asking reports in the matter.

Thirty counties reported in response to the controller's demand and of these thirty only thirteen admitted the possession of money representing escheated estates. Twenty-eight counties failed to report, although it is known that several of them hold money derived from unclaimed estates. Chambers has sent out a second demand.

In addition, the controller also notified the attorney-general that escheated estates to the number of, approximately, 1300, were on his books and the money paid in but was being held pending court action by him to formally deposit it in the state treasury.

The thirteen counties now reporting with amounts, are as follows:

Sick People Sometimes Die From Lack of a Good Stimulant

Especially is this true in grip and pneumonia, for they are infectious diseases which attack weak and strong alike. Serious complications are liable to develop in the course of the disease, as grip settles in the weakest part of the system, sometimes the kidneys, the brain, the stomach or the heart, resulting often in heart failure, the most dreaded of all, pneumonia, which is particularly fatal when arising from grip. As one able medical writer says:

"In all severe types of pneumonia there are two sources of danger—heart insufficiency, and high temperature. A large portion of deaths from pneumonia directly result from heart failure."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Judiciously used is one of the most efficient means of preventing or overcoming it."

The reason it is a remarkable remedy in the treatment and relief of grip, coughs, colds, influenza, bronchitis, catarrh, pneumonia and all diseases of the throat and lungs, is that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey aids in keeping the digestive functions in healthy condition so that the body gets the necessary health and strength from food eaten—enabling it to throw off disease germs. For more than 60 years it has brought the blessings of health to overworked men, delicate women and the sickly, who find in Duffy's the strength-giving properties that are so necessary to them.

Downieville, Cut Off
by Snow; Needs Food

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—"Snowbound," Whittier's picture of a hard New England winter, was a more pleasant experience in comparison to the conditions that now exist in Downieville and other towns in the high Sierras.

Thomas C. Heide, manager for Gustav de Bretteville's mine near Foker Flat, in the Buick Hill ridge, reached San Francisco yesterday with a tale of hardship.

In Downieville, he says, the people have not seen a newspaper in six weeks. They are out of eggs and butter and all fresh meats. Only first-class mail gets in and out over the stage road, which is buried under twenty feet of snow. This is carried by men on snow shoes.

Blue Bird Bureau

Department of Good-Fellows

Today the younger of the leper boys received a coaster from a little fellow who had read his story in the Blue Bird column and felt that he would like to bring some happiness to the child. As soon as the rain will stop and the sun will shine there'll be fun for him the long day, pulling the coaster up the hill and sliding down. The big boy, too old to enjoy that sort of play, may laugh at his companion's capers, but there will be a ring of sadness and disappointment through it, for so few no one has offered him a phonograph and that's what he is longing for more than anything else in the world. In the line of amusement and games. Especially the evenings seem so long and lonesome. It is true, the little Good Fellow has sent the coaster added a lot of games and these are very much appreciated, but it is much above all else the two boys crave and would be extremely grateful for.

Here is another letter found in this morning's mail:

"Your very kind consideration and help during the holiday season in furnishing clothes and attention for the S. family is very much appreciated, and that no doubt has been the means of bringing happiness to them. Sincerely,

"MRS. C. P. SIMONTON,
"Corresponding Secretary Oakland New Century Club."

The first boy who received a violin through the aid of the Blue Bird Bureau is now taking lessons and he is a very happy boy indeed. It means much to him, for some day he will have to earn his living as a violinist. His left arm is defective and he will never be able to follow in the footsteps of his father and ancestors and earn his bread and butter with hard labor. And he is such a frail and interesting looking chap, too.

The following letter was received by the Blue Bird Bureau:

"We have a bright boy 13 years of age for whom we are very anxious to find a free home. He could be useful after and before school, but must go to school regularly. Could you help us find a home for him? His father has deserted him and his mother is in an asylum. The boy is nicely brought up and is a lad that any one would be proud of. This boy is not for adoption, but we do not think his parents would ever interfere in his life in which he was placed. The boy is of Protestant parentage."

Motor Show Plans Rushed by Committees

Organization has been perfected of the committees which will be in charge of the big Pacific coast motor power show, to be given at the Oakland Municipal Auditorium from April 26 to May 8. The exposition will be held under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, with the 1916 committee on the Lincoln highway, just appointed by President J. H. King. Dennis Searies is chairman, with Frank W. Elmer, Louis W. Buckley, D. E. Grayson, and W. H. Lever, Jr. as members. Fred Seuburger, Carl Sward, F. A. Williamson and P. H. Woodward are the remaining members.

A meeting of the committee will be held in a few days with Roy Smith, L. E. Warford and L. W. Buckley, manager of the Auditorium, at which plans will be formulated for the marking of the Lincoln highway between Salt Lake City and Oakland, the western terminus of the road. At this meeting the details for the opening night will also be discussed. In addition to the exhibition of automobiles, there will be displays of gas and electric engines, appliances for the use of all sorts of power, marine engines, motor-boat displays, gas, electric and other power commercial trucks, good roads-making machinery; in fact, everything pertaining to motor power from an electrically operated washing machine or sewing machine to a big tractor engine. Nearly 500,000 square feet of floor space will be utilized.

Beggar Rises to High Rank of a General

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—The story of the beggar made king and other upsets of the day were related yesterday by officers of the Pacific Mail liner Pennsylvania, which arrived from Balboa.

The Pennsylvania, much to the disgust of the officers and crew, was held for twenty-four hours in Alcatraz because all the stevedores and laborers had turned the day into a holiday in honor of the presence of the city of Major-General Manuel Flores, the "stevedore general" of the Carranza army.

Before the revolution Flores was a stevedore on the Mazatlan waterfront. When the Carranza forces captured Mazatlan Flores gave up his job of helping unload Pacific Mail vessels and joined the army. In less than two years he attained his present rank.

All the town turned out in his honor. The band played and all the girls wore their prettiest dresses and cheered the hero.

Low Colonist Rates to Pacific Coast

T. A. Rigdon, passenger agent of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company, has just received advice from H. K. Gregory, assistant general passenger agent, that transcontinental lines have authorized low colonist fares from Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans and Missouri river and Mississippi river points to Oakland and other Pacific coast terminals, tickets on sale for use March 25 to April 15, both inclusive.

The low colonist rates heretofore have been the means of enabling thousands of easterners to visit Oakland and the Pacific coast, and through their use California has secured quite a few settlers.

The Santa Fe offers the same train accommodations to passengers holding colonist fare tickets as allowed on regular trains, therefore this low rate will be of interest to intending passengers to California.

Restore Flag, Is Plea of Coast Shippers

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Emulating Pacific Coast ship-owners, representative importers and exporters in San Francisco yesterday met and protested against national legislation that has had the effect of driving the American flag from the Pacific.

While the La Follette seaman's act was not specifically alluded to, it is against such laws that the petition of the shippers for relief was directed. The Pacific Mail withdrew from the Pacific when the La Follette bill went into effect.

The local exporters and importers petitioned the Chamber of Commerce to seek remedial legislation.

SEATTLE SETS RECORD.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 11.—When the registration books closed at midnight last night for the municipal primary the latter part of this month and the city election early in March, 18,243 names were on the rolls, and being a new record for registration for spring elections. The previous record was 74,604 in 1912. Six thousand two hundred and fifty-five voters registered yesterday. Under a new state law voters who participated in general election will not be required to register again for four years.

Money Couldn't Buy It.

The relief he personally experienced moved Mr. W. P. Briggs, Konawa, Okla., to write to the Pinus laboratories a letter of appreciation in which he says:

"Fruita and Traxo helped me so much I am advising all who suffer with gall-stones to try them. Money wouldn't buy what this medicine has done for me."

Fruita is an intestinal lubricant that softens the congested masses, disintegrates the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expels the accumulated waste to the intense relief of the patient. Following a dose of Fruita, Traxo should be taken three or four times a day to restore the system that has been weakened by constant suffering. It is a splendid tonic, acting on the liver and stomach most beneficially.

Fruita and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists. In Oakland they can be obtained at The Owl Drug Co. Stores.

Informer Must Fight for County Reward

Frank R. Branch of San Leandro has renewed his efforts to collect a reward of $500 under an old law providing that an informer on malefactions of public officials is entitled to that remuneration, by filing an action in the Superior Court. He alleges that he first called the attention of the district attorney to the alleged irregularities practiced by the San Leandro board of trustees which last July caused the grand jury to return accusations against them. The members of the board resigned and it is claimed by the district attorney's office that as there was no conviction Branch is not entitled to a reward.

Well Known Remedy Relieves Chronic Case

Important to Dispose of Waste From the Stomach With Regularity.

People frequently attribute to failure of the digestive organs conditions that are primarily due to inactive bowels, and apply remedies that from their very nature are more apt to aggravate than to relieve the disorder.

When the bowels act regularly the stomach is in better shape to perform its allotted tasks and can usually be depended upon. To keep the bowels in condition there is no more effective remedy than the combination of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell has prescribed this remedy in his practice for over a quarter of a century and it is today the standard household remedy in thousands of homes. Mr. Thos. DeLoach, with the Department of the Interior, Office of Indian Affairs, at Washington, wrote Dr. Caldwell recently that "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best laxative I have any knowledge of and the cleaning up guaranteed by its use relieves every organ." A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be on hand in every home for use when needed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

REGISTRATION FORM ATTACKED

The Attorney of Jefferson Club Gives Opinion on the Election Law.

H. H. McKee, a member of the recently-appointed law committee of the Jefferson Democratic Club of Alameda County, today rendered an opinion to J. W. Dugan, county clerk, on the effect that the voters registering under the system placed in vogue by County Clerk George E. Gross are liable to disfranchisement at the primary election.

This action will be followed by the filing of a demand with Gross that he change the form of the registration blanks now in use. If this is refused, District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes will be asked to take action. If nothing is then done the Jefferson Club members will take the matter into the courts.

THE OPINION.
McKee's letter follows, in full: "Since the Supreme Court of the State of California decided on January 31 of this year that county clerks must permit electors to state in their affidavits of registration the name of the political party with which the elector intends to affiliate, I have made personal investigation of the manner in which some of the deputies of the county clerk of Alameda county are registering voters, and I find that the affidavits do not contain a statement to the effect that the elector intends to affiliate with a party. It is the practice of these deputies to write on the margin of the affidavit the name of a political party, as, for instance, 'Democrat or Republican.' I learned from one deputy that he had blanks, in the body of which, following the word 'intends,' the words, 'by rubber stamping the words, political party.'"

As the Primary Election Law requires that the elector must declare in his affidavit the name of the party with which he intends to affiliate, it is my opinion that merely writing the name of a political party on the margin of the affidavit of registration, or writing after the rubber stamped words 'political party' a party name, is not a compliance with the requirements of the Primary Election Law, or a making of a declaration of an intention to affiliate with any particular political party.

"The county clerk is supposed to know the law, and it is impossible to believe that after so much discussion of this matter recently, and particularly as he was present in court when the Supreme Court rendered its oral decision, that he does not know that the affidavit must contain the declaration of the elector's intention to affiliate with a political party."

MAY DISFRANCHISE.
"If electors are induced or permitted to so register and the deputy writes on the margin of the affidavit the name of a political party, or writes such name after the rubber stamped words, all voters who so register are liable to be disfranchised at the primary election, in the interest of good government and to preserve to the citizens the right of party government, we have waged battle against political machines that have been making strenuous efforts to deny the citizens these constitutional rights. So far we have succeeded, and I believe it is our duty as citizens to demand of the county clerk of Alameda County that he immediately furnish proper forms for voters to use in registering the name of the political party with which they intend to affiliate in all cases where the elector desires to make such declaration. I am sending you two copies of this letter, one to you, as chairman of the committee of the Jefferson Club, and forward to the county clerk of Alameda County, and later, if it becomes necessary, I may forward the other copy to the district attorney of that county."

Improvers Indorse Union R. R. Depot

The following resolution has been passed by the Santa Fe Improvement Association, February 8:
"It is the sense of this meeting of the Association that Mayor Davis's plan for a Central Union Railway depot in Oakland be heartily endorsed, and that this association extend all possible aid toward its furtherance."

It is planned to have President Roscoe D. Jones of the Civil Service Commission address the membership and their friends at the next meeting of the association, February 22. His subject will be "Civil Service." In addition, there will be an attractive program in charge of a special committee, consisting of A. Harris, chairman; J. M. Hyland, H. A. Johnson and W. H. Waterhouse.

50,000 Voters Register in Alameda County

The statement shows registration in the different parties as follows: Republican, 5172; Democrats, 1334; Progressives, 510; Socialists, 368; Prohibitionists, 91; declined to state, 2767; failed to state, 32,458.

Oil Freight Rates Drop Because of Ships

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A sharp break has occurred in freight rates for oil tank steamers from the United States. The reduction in freight is about 35 per cent and is attributed to the unexpected appearance of new ships in the trade. Further reductions are expected. The present rate of $30 a ton is equivalent to about 12 cents a gallon, and a fall in retail prices is expected.

STATE BUREAU IS LOOKING UP JOBS

Unemployed Register to Fill Positions of All Kinds.

Announcing that more than 400 different candidates for work have registered during the first week, Miss Helen Power, manager of the new branch of the State Labor Bureau, recently opened at Tenth and Franklin streets, has issued an appeal to the employers of labor, asking them to assist her in the work of alleviating the distress of the unemployed.

Since the new bureau opened at week ago, long lines of men and women seeking employment have braved the inclement weather, and stood in line for hours that they might register. Every trade and every calling is represented in the long list of applicants, skilled and unskilled, laborers, domestics, clerical and even managerial. Miss Power said today:

NOT CHARITY.
"The public employment bureau is not a charitable institution—it does not aim to give food, clothing and cheer to the needy. It is simply an intermediary between capital and labor, between employer and employee, between the manless, womanless job and the jobless man or woman. No fee is charged on either side for work secured, or positions filled. The state holds it to be one of its chief duties to give to its citizens the right to work which is part of the right to live. Owing to the recent and undisputed hard times, in which thousands have suffered loss of business and income, this work of the state has become imperative, but its methods will be businesslike."

"To be a success, the active and enthusiastic cooperation of the public must be secured," says Miss Power. "What need to have long lines of men and women applicants, if there are no positions? Every man and woman of Oakland and throughout the state must be made to feel this movement is their movement, and this latest public utility their own to use and use efficiently."

WANT ALL JOBS.
"Already positions for work have been and are being filled, to the mutual satisfaction of employer and employee—but we want all the openings and chances for work to be reported as a matter of course to the only employment bureau operated solely and exclusively for the benefit of the public. We appeal to the people in their own interests, to use it as their own—and to feel, whether citizen or alien, whether employer, worker or unemployed, that we are public servants and co-operators in this state-wide movement to bring the right man and the right woman to the right job."

Progressives to Hold Seattle Convention

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 11.—Leaders of the Progressive party at a conference here yesterday decided to hold a state convention in Seattle prior to the Republican state convention the date for which has not been set. The night before the Progressive convention, a Progressive banquet will be given. The conference directed that the convention should be limited to 100 delegates, apportioned on the basis of one delegate for each 1000 votes cast for Roosevelt in 1912. The question of nominating a state ticket will not be decided until after the national conventions. L. Roy Slater of Spokane, chairman of the state committee, was the only man present at the conference from outside King county.

DISCUSS PLANS ## TO IMPROVE BAY

SKATING RINK DEAL

City Council of Richmond May Spend $175,000 to Make Inner Harbor Navigable.

RICHMOND, Feb. 11.—Argument over the amount of money to be spent immediately on the harbor project from the bond money voted for such improvements is at present furnishing interest in the city council and all local civic bodies.

Originally $1,700,000 was voted by the city for improving its harbor with the understanding that government help would be secured to assist. Of that amount $230,000 will be expended when the tunnel, highway and outer wharf, now building, are finished. This leaves about $640,000 in the harbor improvement fund.

Other needed improvements on the outer harbor will raise this amount to nearly $1,000,000 for use in the inner harbor. The nature of improvements for the inner harbor is the present question. City Attorney L. H. Hall will on next Monday present to the council an agreement between the city and the Bay Counties Land Company, by which the latter would part with valuable harbor lands to the city if the city will build a bulkhead and dredge a channel to their lands. The land company will give 100 acres of land and $200,000 to the project. The filled lands would be held for factory sites at a very low figure.

CAVE MAN JAILED.
RICHMOND, Feb. 11.—A charge of petty larceny against Charles Holt, arrested in the wilds of San Pablo creek, where he was leading the life of the aboriginal cave man, has landed him in the county jail for twenty days. Holt was arrested after the city council had voted to pay $100,000 to the Holt family for the land. VETERANS ADDRESS SCHOOL.
RICHMOND, Feb. 11.—The members of the Richmond Grand Army Post visited the various schools of the city today on their annual Lincoln Day pilgrimage. At each school speeches were made by the veterans, telling the story of Lincoln's life. The old soldiers were conducted from school to school in automobiles procured for their use by S. V. Barnes and Louis Boswell of the Richmond Lodge of Elks.

FILES DAMAGE SUIT.
RICHMOND, Feb. 11.—Suit for $55,100 damages was filed yesterday for the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway by Frank Q. Brandt, a San Francisco artist and painter, who says he was injured in an accident on San Pablo avenue in July, 1915, when a street car on which he was riding was struck by a Santa Fe train.

OPEN NIGHT PLANNED.
RICHMOND, Feb. 11.—The date of the next open meeting for the women of the city today on their annual Lincoln Day pilgrimage. At each school speeches were made by the veterans, telling the story of Lincoln's life. The old soldiers were conducted from school to school in automobiles procured for their use by S. V. Barnes and Louis Boswell of the Richmond Lodge of Elks.

Hartford Woman Tells How
She Regained Strength.

Hartford, Conn. "I was run-down, nervous, no appetite, could not sleep, and had no strength. An old lady told me how much Vinol had helped her when she was in a like condition. I tried it and noticed an improvement within a week. It soon built up my strength, my nervousness disappeared and I can sleep well. I have never found any remedy equal to Vinol to create strength." Mrs. Clara Burr.

It's the tonic from the medicinal extracts of fresh cods' liver without oil; and best of all, contained in Vinol, that makes it successful in enriching the blood and creating strength for run-down, nervous, over-worked women.

We have seen such wonderful results right here in Oakland from the use of Vinol, that we will return the money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.

P. S.—In your own town wherever you live there is a Vinol drug store. Look for the sign.—Advertisement.

Thin Folks Who Want to Get Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More.

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to eat a few pounds and stay that way." So says every woman who is thin and who has tried to get fat by eating rich, fatty foods. Such a result is impossible, despite past failures. Most women are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the body from getting the food from being taken up by the blood as they are, when the powers of nutrition are weak.

Sargol is sold by druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase. It is a food, not a medicine, and is absolutely harmless.

NOTE—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, it is not intended for use as a weight gain. It is a food, not a medicine, and is absolutely harmless.

WOMEN PROTEST

SKATING RINK DEAL

Resolutions Adopted by Democratic Club of the County.

Resolutions protesting against the leasing of the Municipal Auditorium to John P. Cook for a skating rink were adopted yesterday afternoon by the Women's Democratic Club of Alameda County at a meeting held at the Key Route Inn. It was decided to circulate a resolution opposing the lease among the women of the city for their signatures.

This followed several addresses on the advisability of using the auditorium for such a purpose, and a talk on "Community Property" by Mrs. L. H. Montgomery, former of new bill enacting the rights of married women. One of the speakers, James P. Montgomery, in talking of 1916 issues commented:

"It is a matter of great surprise that the people who have charge of the city's interests could take such a stand and it is possible that the have been careless in other instances. It would be well for the people to look into this and find out just what they have been doing."

Another, Miss Vera McCord, declared that the growth of a community depended upon the vision of its citizens; that Oakland had recently experienced a great forward movement such as was impossible without a place like the auditorium.

Other speakers at the meeting were Thomas E. Hayden, attorney, and Mrs. Edgar Ormsby, former president of the club, who presided.

It has just been discovered by the committee of the Chamber of Commerce that is investigating the skating rink contract with Cook that an error made in preparing the paper causes the instrument to provide that a good and sufficient bond must be provided by the lessor.

This, in the opinion of Dr. F. P. Jackson, commissioner of public health and safety, may make the work of the city council easier. "However," he added, "the commissioner who is authorized to enter into the contract by resolution still has the authority and the error may be corrected before the resolution can be rescinded."

Commissioner W. H. Edwards now declares that he would vote to rescind the proceedings and Commissioner William J. Jackson joined in saying he too would vote against the lease. Mayor Davis said that he did not know whether the contract would again come before the council for ratification.

Mrs. Edgar Ormsby has called a special meeting of the Oakland Club of which she is vice-president, to discuss the proposed lease tomorrow afternoon. This afternoon it was to be taken up by the Oakland Center for impromptu open discussion.

Internal Hemorrhages of the Kidneys Have Now Entirely Disappeared.

The symptoms of a deranged stomach frequently take the form of headache, backache, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, coated tongue, foul breath, affected liver, kidneys or rheumatism. These symptoms yield readily to the new herbal system tonic, Plant Juice, which is a combination of nature's own remedies, medicinal roots, herbs, barks and berries.

Daily testimonials are being received from scores of people telling how they have been relieved from illnesses of long standing. For instance, Mr. Henry Wagner, who resides on Euclid avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, gives the following testimonial. Mr. Wagner is a well-known G. A. R. man and although 38 years of age, is still very bright and active. He writes:

"Plant Juice has brought about a wonderful cure in my case. I had a very serious affection of the kidneys, with heavy, dull, shooting pains in my back. I had a great many internal hemorrhages of the kidneys. This condition has now entirely disappeared. I was very restless at night and could not sleep. I sleep now the night through and think it is wonderful after having suffered so many years. I certainly recommend Plant Juice to anyone who has kidney trouble, as there is nothing like it."

Plant Juice is sold in all Owl Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

E. C. Lyon Elected
Head of Moving Assn.

E. C. Lyon, of Oakland, was elected president and C. H. Samuels, of Berkeley, secretary-treasurer of the Alameda County Moving and Storage Association at a meeting last evening. The organization is an association of a large number of the furniture movers of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, who have banded together to keep uniform rates for moving and to increase the workmanship standard of its members.

The organization is about a year old now," Lyon said today, "and we felt that we have helped not only ourselves, but the public as well."

Dr. Elizabeth H. Houston will give a lecture this evening before the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society in the First Congregational church. Dr. Houston will have as the keynote in Spanish Guinea to "What to Do Best."

Be Careful in Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoo contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain multifruit cream oil. For it is very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and brightly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advertisement.

CREW OF HARVARD

RUSHED TO HEARING

Ship Makes Special Run on Order of United States Inspectors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—The Pacific Navigation company's steamer Harvard is making a special trip to San Francisco today and will arrive tomorrow morning that officers and crew may be called upon to testify tomorrow before the inspectors of hulls and boilers in connection with the sinking of the schooner Excelsior on Monday night. The Harvard has been running on a daily schedule between San Pedro and San Diego. Her sister ship, the Yale, has been making connections at San Pedro, running from here to the Los Angeles port and return. Captain E. P. Bartlett of the Yale was in command of the Harvard when she rammed the Excelsior in the fog Monday night, sinking the little schooner and causing the injury of four men.

When the Harvard sailed Tuesday morning Captain Bartlett was held behind and he has already given his testimony. In order that the officers and crew might appear as witnesses, the Yale was placed on the Harvard run. The latter vessel will arrive at 9 a. m. tomorrow and inspectors Guthrie and Deane will endeavor to take all their testimony before 1 p. m. her sailing time.

Joseph B. Dorrard, chief engineer of the Excelsior, who is at Fabiola hospital, is said now to have a good chance of recovery and the other men hurt are also said to be mending.

GARRISON'S RESIGNATION.

Mr. Lindley M. Garrison, Secretary of War, was the "biggest" man in the President's cabinet since the present administration assumed charge of the national government. By this we mean he was possessed of more individual ability and force of character than any other member of the cabinet and carried his loyalty to party to a reckless disregard of the facts. The loyalty to party was not in all cases acceptable to the administration dictatorial and independent, forceful views were intolerable to him. That is why Mr. Garrison has resigned from office.

It would be a mistake to look for the causes of his resignation solely in the differences between him and the President over the continental army. These are a mask to deeper, sharper reasons, which shook the soul of Mr. Garrison because they disclosed such a cheap value on manhood. It has been unpleasant for Mr. Garrison for a long time. He objected to being the medium of communication between the White House and the clerks of the War Department. And when he ventured to advance any independent views or take any independent action he found himself estranged from the President's friendly circle—the narrow and uncongenial circle that it is.

The situation has been notorious in Washington for months. A shocking manifestation of it was observed when the President, at the suggestion of a New York newspaper man, ordered Mr. Garrison to discipline Major-General Leonard Wood for permitting Colonel Roosevelt to deliver the Plattsburg speech. Mr. Garrison did not think a reprimand was called for, but the outsider won.

Mr. Garrison lost in the controversy with former President Taft on the Philippine question. Mr. Taft's criticisms of Philippine policies and conditions were unanswerable with truth and logic, and the Garrison statements disclosed the false position the administration was trying to maintain, by attracting nation-wide attention to the failures in the Philippines.

On the question of the Clarke amendment, however, Mr. Garrison stood for American honor and ideals and stoutly opposed scuttling. He wrote the President: "I consider the principle embodied in the Clarke amendment an abandonment of the duty of this nation and a breach of trust toward the Filipinos; so believing I cannot accept it or acquiesce in its acceptance."

And Mr. Wilson couldn't interfere! Save the words!

Generally speaking, Mr. Garrison was a forceful, intelligent and industrious Secretary of War. He was for material increases to our national defenses two years ago—when Mr. Wilson was opposed to them. He was a leader of public sentiment for preparedness and Mr. Wilson had to be driven with the hot goads of public protest and Roosevelt. We cannot doubt the sincerity of Mr. Garrison on the defense question and therefore must conclude that he was unalterably opposed to sacrificing honest, adequate defense, in the smallest measure, to party exigency. Mr. Wilson has another idea about it and so has Representative Hay. Disgust and chagrin on being found in company where patriotism is subordinated to spoils and partisan opportunity is sufficient cause for any sincere man to withdraw.

MORE FOREIGN COMPLICATIONS.

The formal notification from the governments of Germany and Austria-Hungary to neutral governments that after March 1 the Teutonic powers will consider and treat all armed merchant vessels as ships of war contemplates the application of a new rule of warfare. While the United States government has recently proposed to belligerents and neutrals the disarmament of merchant vessels, it is unlikely that the proposal of the Central Powers will escape emphatic protest from neutral governments.

While Germany and Austria may be soundly justified in their new attitude toward merchantmen, nations having treaty relations with them cannot calmly acquiesce in the changing of international law and practice arbitrarily merely by the promulgation of a notice. Common practice, confirmed to a substantial extent by treaties between nations, permits the arming of merchant vessels, but only for purposes of defense. The German claims that the British admiralty has issued instructions to all British merchantmen to arm and assume the offensive against submarines can hardly be accepted by neutrals as cause for other belligerents and neutral merchantmen surrendering their privilege of arming for defense.

On the simple issues and practices of the present war the Teutonic powers appear right in deciding to regard armed belligerent merchantmen as ships of war and subject them to the same submarine and other attacks as might be aimed at regular ships of the line. But the United States and other neutrals cannot, with the highest regard for their interests, acknowledge such a policy as legal until it is formally assented to by them. It is likely, therefore, that a protest will be made against the issuance of the proposed orders. And as such protest will carry with it the obligations of neutrals to give attention to the allegations that belligerent merchantmen are using their legal defensive ordinance for illegal offensive purposes, we are promised another series of diplomatic negotiations. The United States is pledged to uphold the doctrine that the peaceful rights of neutrals are superior to the military advantages of belligerents wherever the two conflict.

HUGHES DIDN'T ELIMINATE HUGHES.

It cannot yet be definitely assumed that Mr. Justice Hughes of the United States Supreme Court is not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. His letter to Representative Slomp of Virginia, published Thursday, is not convincing. It lacks conviction because it lacks frankness to settle for all times the real question in the minds of the people. Mr. Hughes writes, as he has written in effect on other occasions, "I am entirely out of politics. I am totally opposed to the use of my name in connection with the nomination and the selection or instruction of any delegates in my interest, either directly or remotely." That was not quite the answer Mr. Slomp expected to his inquiry. He had written Mr. Hughes informing him that former Postmaster-General Hitchcock had been discovered "pussyfooting" around in Virginia rounding up support to Mr. Hughes' candidacy; that Mr. Hitchcock was working toward having the Virginia delegates instructed for Mr. Hughes at the Chicago convention in June.

Had Mr. Hughes desired completely to relieve Mr. Slomp's mind of all perplexity he would have written: "I am not a candidate for the presidential nomination. I will not be a candidate. I will need no delegates. Any person seeking delegates in support of my alleged candidacy is on a fool's errand and should be denounced." But he did not speak in this sense. He said nothing to clear up the question of his candidacy and that matter remains in the same unsettled state that has characterized it ever since Mr. Hughes refused to permit his name to be used in the Nebraska primaries. It cannot be taken for granted that Mr. Hughes has disposed of himself in his letter to Mr. Slomp. He is still a presidential probability and open to nomination on the floor of the convention.

The proposed treaty between the United States and Nicaragua, now being discussed in committee in the Senate, by which we are to pay the Central American government three million dollars for an exclusive concession for the construction of a canal along the so-called Nicaraguan route and for a naval base and other privileges in the Bay of Fonseca, should be confirmed if presented in the form it was drawn at the last session of Congress. It is to the interest of the United States to control this route, that another canal may not be constructed in opposition to the Panama route by a foreign government, and we also need the use of Fonseca Bay for our navy. Careful guard should be kept, however, to see that no changes are introduced in the treaty which will entail a waiver of the rights we expect to obtain for the three million dollars. The Democrats in the last Congress were opposed to the treaty on the ground that it did not give just regard to interests along the Nicaraguan route other than those of Nicaragua. It would be a foolish policy to ignore the main object sought—absolute control of this route—in order to reconcile conflicting opinions.

Complete building reports from all the larger cities in the West and from all the smaller cities in California show that Oakland, Berkeley and Richmond were the only cities to record increases in the value of new construction in 1915 as compared to the previous year. Oakland's building permits totaled $5,045,289 as against $4,717,520 in 1914. Berkeley spent $1,943,925 against $1,821,100, and Richmond $447,340 against $396,204. Oakland ranks fourth among Western cities in amount spent on new construction, being exceeded only by San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle. The last named three cities suffered a big decrease, building values in San Francisco dropping from $28,000,000 in 1914, to $13,000,000 in 1915; Los Angeles from $17,000,000 to $11,000,000, and Seattle from $12,000,000 to $6,000,000.

NOTES and COMMENT

T. R. says he is "sick of this uplift chatter." Well, who began it?

It is hoped that Oakland's new postoffice will be busy in getting here.

Appearances are that Oakland is to be a great shipbuilding center in the near future.

Here it is already. The San Francisco Auditorium is in need of paint at a cost of $6000.

Almost before we are sure we are to have a war plan at all they fall into violent controversy over its character.

Federal Judge Dooling has declared the Carranza government to be legal. Why didn't he do it before—or something?

Mr. Bryan's quiescence as to the national attitude on preparedness is the most reverberating thing he has ever guilty of.

It was disclosed at the convention of merchant tailors that a gentleman's wardrobe should cost $2000. Are we all gentlemen?

We talk nowadays to our neighbors in New York as though we were leaning over the fence indulging in a neighborly chat.

Sidestepped it again. The suffrage question has been referred to the House Judiciary Committee without recommendation.

Two dredges on the Alameda marsh are throwing up what a few officials over there seem to have a predilection for just now—mud.

The Panama canal seems to be a most uncertain trouble. Not under six months it is expected to be opened to commerce again.

There isn't a whole lot of time to get up that referendum petition, and there are a number of good reasons why it should be gotten up.

Brandels is put on the grill, but that sort of thing is right in his line. He is in his element in a fight and the odds that he will triumph should be liberal.

The indoor baseball experts are working overtime in doing out how it is going to be. They know ever so much more than those who have a hold on the job.

If you registered prior to the promulgation of the Supreme Court decision you had best revise, the proceeding and thus be sure you are down just as you desire to be.

A Santa Fe jury awarded $15,700 in a breach of promise case and the judge cut it to $7000. If he could do that why couldn't he have adjudicated the matter in the first instance? Is the layman's foolish question.

Redfield: He made a speech giving expert statistics which proved to be all wrong, and he now admits the error. He is the secretary of commerce and as such appears to share the prevailing ignorance of the administration.

They "rode" Judge Sturtevant rather hard when he rendered that street railway decision, but all the decisions since have been sustaining, including that of the Supreme Court, just handed down. The judge who decides right is bound sometimes to judge unpopularly.

ADRIET ACROSS THE PACIFIC.

The eight Japanese fishermen who drifted across the Pacific in an open boat, without mast or rudder, have contributed a new chapter to the annals of seamanship and endurance. Caught by a storm off Shimoda, near Yokohama, the hardy mariners were driven off shore by ocean currents. With scant supplies and in an unmanageable creaky shell, they weathered gales for a distance of approximately 6000 miles until they were picked up at one of the desert islands off the coast of British Columbia by a passing steamer. In the last stage of that eventful voyage the hardy Japanese fishermen were without food and water alike. Still they clung grimly to their boat and escaped the death which had sat beside them all through the twenty-four days of their perilous adventure.

The incident and the triumph are characteristic of the Japanese race. Careless of life when it must be sacrificed, and yet strongly tenacious of it, the coastwise people of Japan deserve to be ranked with the best, the bravest and the most resourceful of those who "go down to the sea in ships." The fishermen Shimoda furnished the first-class human material out of which were made the fighting sailors who destroyed Russia's naval power in the Straits of Tsushima; the whalers and sealers whose ventures into unknown seas have bred maritime traditions into the very warp and snaw of the nation.

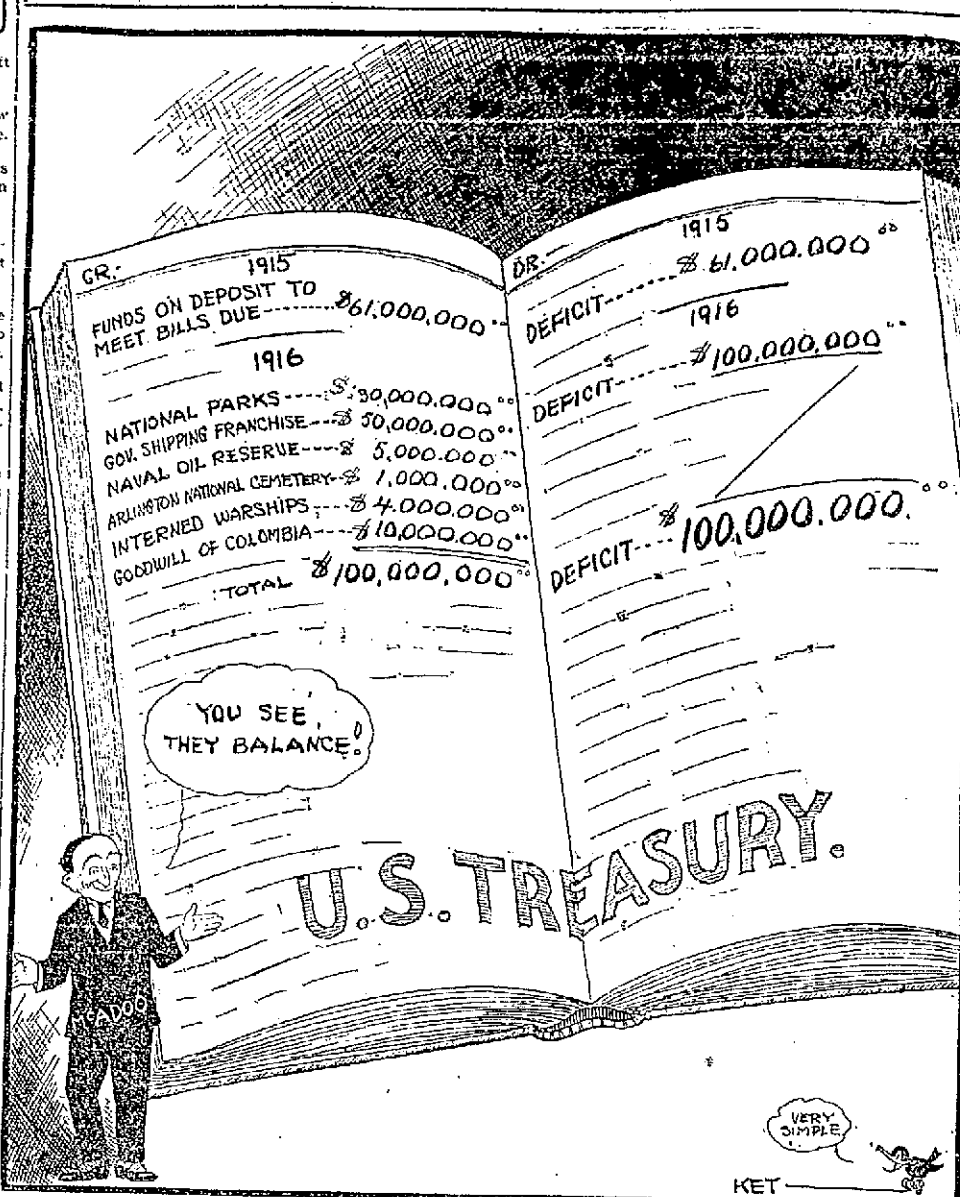

It is a race to be reckoned with, whether in war or in peace. All honor to the hardy fishermen of Shimoda!—New York Mirror.

CHILDREN OF JOHN BROWN.

Two children of old John Brown of Harper's Ferry are spending their declining years in the friendly climate of the Pacific coast. Sarah Brown is in her seventieth year, and Salmon Brown, her brother, is a decade older. "I have given up in regard to all work and am now a drowsy in the hive," he writes. But at eighty there are excuses. Salmon Brown is said to be the last survivor of those who took part in the Pottawatomie executions of May, 1856, following the sack of Lawrence by Atchison and the Missourians. In his old age he retains his faculties to a remarkable degree, and his memory still recalls vividly the stirring scenes of his young manhood.—Chicago Evening Post.

PRUSSIANISM IS NEEDED. "Mike" Smith, aged eleven, of Bridgeport, Conn., who kicked and bit the school principal, who was forbidden to thrash him, is one of the youngsters who need military training. He might make a Torrence Stubbins with proper opportunities.—Brooklyn Eagle.

ABERDEEN'S ORDERS ARE
U. S. PROBEThe Inspectors Want to Know Who Sent Ship
on Fatal Trip

Whether some official of the municipality of Oakland was responsible for the order which made Captain Peter Knudsen take the garbage steamer Aberdeen through the Golden Gate in the teeth of the worst gale of the year, was the subject of an inquiry by the federal inspectors in San Francisco today.

Captains James Guthrie and Joseph Nelson, inspectors of hulls and boilers, have been conducting a quiet probe into the circumstances under which the Aberdeen went to sea three times a week. It has been the custom of her officers never to miss a trip. The regularity with which she made her short voyages was remarked frequently by shipping men and often also put to sea when larger and more seaworthy boats were held hesitating in the inner harbor.

"We are anxious to learn whether or not any orders were issued by some official of the administration which led the officers of the Aberdeen to risk their lives in taking the vessel through the storm," declared Captain Guthrie this morning. "I am going to examine a witness today in that connection. We have no idea whether such orders were given or what official or officials may have been responsible, but we are trying to learn."

The Aberdeen was wrecked on the night of January 27, carrying eight men to their death.

MAYOR'S AUTO IN THE MOVIES
DAVIE GETS IN THEM, ALSO

SUN SHINES AND CROWD CHEERS

Mayor John L. Davie, surrounded by an admiring crowd, was photographed by two large view cameras and a motion picture machine in his new 12-cylinder automobile, emblazoned with the proposed seal of the city, in front of the city hall today.

Before entering the new automobile the mayor extended an invitation to the other commissioners to join him on a trial ride. He also carefully inspected the blue and gold seal painted on each side of the car, with the words "Mayor's Auto" lettered across it.

When the scene was set, the mayor marched from the big front doors of the city hall rotunda, down the steps, and stepped into his automobile, bowing right and left to the crowd.

But there was something wrong with the motion picture machine. The crank would not turn and the operator swore.

The mayor was genial, however. He waved his hand, indicating that he would "do it all over." And he did. The mayor got out of his new automobile. He went back to the doorway. He waited. The motion picture man fixed his machine. All was ready. The mayor marched once more.

This time the machine worked. The crowd applauded. The mayor took his seat, bowed right and left, gave the signal to his son, Chauffeur Fred Davie, and the car sped away.

As the mayor came opposite the "movie man" he raised his hat courteously. It is all on the film, and is a permanent record of the first ride taken by the mayor of the city of Oakland in his new car, purchased for $3000, on an appropriation passed by the city council, Commissioner Bacus voting no.

Bacus has a natural interest in automobiles, however. The municipal garage is in his department. He could not resist the temptation to climb into the mayor's machine, sit at the wheel and inspect the machinery before the mayor came down to get his picture taken.

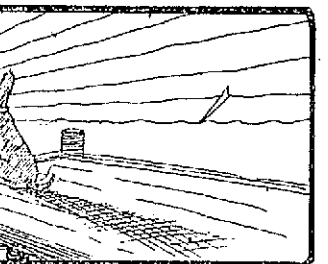

Commissioner Harry Anderson said he admired the painting on the panel but objected to the ship being a little too light.

"The city hall is a bird," said Anderson. "The sunset in the Golden Gate is all right. The train is excellent. But the little tugboat is a mistake. There was room in the picture for a good-sized schooner."

When Mayor Davie many months ago announced his intention of using an appropriation to be made by the council for an automobile for the department of public affairs, and appointed his son as chauffeur, he stated that the machine should be seen and recognized in every part of the city.

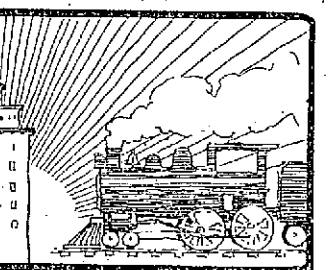

"It will be labeled as the mayor's machine," said Mayor Davie. "The people shall know that I am watching the condition of the streets; that I am visiting neighborhoods to see that all is well. Whenever a complaint is made I shall personally investigate it, and the people will know that I am doing so."

"The mayor needs an automobile to welcome the guests of the city. The car should be a handsome one, not a 'tin Lizzie.' We must have an automobile which will be suitable to take the President of the United States, or former President Taft, or Teddy Roosevelt out for a ride."

"That the car may be known as the mayor's, a gold design has been painted on each side. The design is one submitted many weeks ago by a local artist for a new seal of the city of Oakland. It is circular in form, with the city hall in the center. The background is the Golden Gate, with a flaming sunset. In the foreground a steamship and a train meet, signifying the meeting of sea and rail at Oakland.

This has been painted in blue and gold on the sides of the machine. The design is well executed.

Mayor Davie and Commissioner Edwards have made numerous ineffectual efforts to have the automobiles owned by the city numbered and letter with the name of the city and the department using the automobile. They have been voted down from time to time by Commissioners from time to time. Anderson, Bacus and Jackson. The mayor will have the only labeled machine in the city with the exception of the police patrol.

"The Masque of St. Valentine," in which "Princess Prosperity" will woo and win "Princess Oakland," is being rehearsed by a cast of sixty daily at the Hotel Oakland in preparation for the big Ad-Masque and carnival ball of the Chamber of Commerce, Monday night at the Municipal Auditorium. Miss Lyla Rogers, chosen in the beauty contest to take the part of "Princess Oakland," and Miss Anna Norling, who was selected at the same time for the role of the "prince," are rehearsing with the dancers and court attendants.

The Misses Rogers and Norling were guests of honor at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon today. Clifford Brooks, chairman of the beauty contest committee, presided, and introduced the two young women to members of the organization. Short speeches were made by both.

The beauty contest committee has selected twelve of the candidates who entered the contest to take part in the Valentine Masque as court ladies and attendants upon the prince and princess. Some will attend the princess while others, attired as knights and courtiers, will be in the train of "Princess Prosperity." Miss Norling, those chosen as court ladies are the Misses Hazel Miller, Pearl Williams, Lillian Malzak, Helen Peoples, Lillian Ratto, Marion Mason, Grace Davies, Florence Barr, Rosalie Traynor and Neva Gray.

The cast for the Valentine Masque, in addition to the named above, has been announced by Clifford Brooks, who is staging the pantomime, as follows:

Classic dancers—Miss Leigh Adams, Miss Virginia Calley, Miss Dorothy Calley, Miss Edith Lindsay, Miss Helen Cature, Miss Phyllis Frost, Miss Ramona Tomlinson, Miss Hazel Van Halren, Miss Elita Switzer, Miss Phoebe Meyer, Miss Rita Behr, Miss Marguerite Mau.

The list of prizes offered for clever costumes to be worn by dancers and masters at the ball has been increased by Route & Ramage, the firm having offered $25 for the best representation of their "Busy Kid" trade mark. This brings the number of prizes to twenty-two.

A clever bit of clowning is to be presented by two sisters who have planned a "Gold Dust Twins" costume. Armed with a big brush and a huge wash basin, they are planning to scrub the 30,000 square feet area of the big arena floor. The Misses Daisy Buxton, a niece of Merritt Duxton, the jockey of Harry Payne Whitney, and Mrs. William Bernheim, both of Oakland.

Kent Castle, chairman of the stunts committee, has sent a request to the hundred or more firms planning to enter displays in the huge bazaar to have their displays at the Auditorium by 7 o'clock, in order to avoid confusion in arranging the parade and to get it started on time.

President Wheeler
Didn't Coin 'Jazm'Is Not Responsible for Slang Word

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, in the capacity of expander of the English language, has been gravely attacked. He did not invent the expressive term "jazm," as his assailant declares, that assailant being Rev. Lapsley A. McAfee of the First Presbyterian church of Berkeley. Rev. McAfee declares the word was coined several years ago, but he does not say who coined it.

Neither does President Wheeler, for that matter, but the campus has admirably ascribed it to him for several months past. The president used it at a recent meeting in the Greek theater. It immediately became a byword on the campus. The coach inspired his players to get more "jazm." Professors pleaded for more "jazm" with their classes. Even members of the chess team inspired their teammates to increase their store of "jazm."

But Rev. McAfee has proved an iconoclast. He spoke on "jazm" at the recent Sunday school county convention.

"Jazm" is a slang word which I have heard President Wheeler originate," he declared. "It is said to be derived from the sound a buzz-saw makes when it goes through a bundle of steel wires. 'Jaz-m-m.' It says,

LABOR DAY NOT TO BE ALL LABOR

Five Hours of Work at University to Be Followed by Eight Hours of Play.

BERKELEY, Feb. 11.—All work and no play makes the student a dull boy. In the opinion of the committees which are planning for Labor Day on February 29 at the University of California, so they announced today a program which includes five hours of work building the serpentine path up to the "Big C" and eight hours and a half of merrymaking at a school. Here is the tentative program announced:

8 a. m. to 1 p. m.—Work on Big C Path.

1 p. m. to 2:30 p. m.—Lunch, California Field.

2:30 to 4 p. m.—Stunts by Colleges.

4 p. m. to 5 p. m.—Dance.

5:30 p. m. to 9 p. m.—Smoker, Harmon Gymnasium.

8 p. m. to 3 p. m.—Women's Entertainment, Central Hall.

8 p. m. to 12 a. m.—Dance, Harmon Gym.

Plans for the construction of the path from the Greek Theater up Charter Hill have been greatly approved. Professor John Galen Howard who drew the plans deems they approximate a capital S sufficiently to cause any misgivings to local Californians. The path will be winding, that the emblem may be gained without too much difficulty, but it won't be anything like the Stanford initial. Work on the path will begin at eight o'clock in the morning, and by one o'clock the whole task, with 2000 or more men at it, is expected to be completed. Then the workmen will go to California Field where the women students, bused meanwhile, will have prepared an attractive luncheon. The women's committee has arranged for a picnic at the field, with milk, plenty of coffee and 200 pounds of beans had been contributed. Stunts by the different colleges will follow the luncheon, and one dance on the field, the tennis courts, with music by the University Cadet Band, will conclude the afternoon's program at 5 o'clock.

In the evening the men and women students will again part company, the former enjoying a smoker at Harmon Gymnasium, and the women being entertained at Central Hall. At 8 o'clock freshmen of both sexes will enjoy a dance at Heston Hall, while the upper class men will hold their dance in Harmon Gymnasium.

With these general plans in view the committees are working out the details rapidly, each planning to make it part of the day's work and play complete.

NAVY PLANS WAR GAME IN PACIFIC

Maneuvers of Battleships Will Take Place Off Golden Gate.

It is known that the Oregon and other reserve ships of the Pacific fleet will maneuver with the active ships in these waters on a war game schedule previously worked out, while the reservists of the Atlantic will work their ships as an integral part of the nation's first line of defense, the Atlantic fleet.

Militiamen and reservists from the interior will go to the nearest coast point to join the ships to which they are assigned.

A fleet of reserve battleships, carrying thousands of the naval reservists, will participate in the summer maneuvers of both fleets, according to Secretary Daniels' plans for a mobilization of the reserve. An appropriation of $17,000 will be asked to cover the traveling expenses of the militiamen of the Great Lakes and other interior sections to the sea coast to join in the mobilization.

The coast battleships Oregon, Keokuk and Kentucky are to be turned over next month to the militia forces of the Atlantic and Pacific for permanent practice ships. The Oregon will be stationed at San Francisco, the Keokuk at Boston and the Kentucky at New York. These three ships and the reserve pre-dreadnaughts, which carry the Annapolis midshipmen on their summer cruise will make up the fleet manned 40 per cent by regular officers and men and 60 per cent by the reserve and naval militia.

THE ATLANTIC FLEET.

The department will also turn over five of the older destroyers to the naval militia of the South Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico. The destroyers are the USS Asheville, Fla.; one at Key West, one at Charleston, S. C.; one at New Orleans, and one at Galveston. The regular mobilization point for these craft for practice cruises will be at Key West.

At the department is asked for $857,000 for the reserve and militia this year and expects to get together more than 4500 reservists of both classes out for the summer mobilization.

BERKELEY, Feb. 11.—"See California First" is the slogan which Miss Mildred Clemens, recent graduate of the University of California, has adopted for her first occupation, and she is proceeding to explain it to the public in a series of lectures in the state capital.

Miss Clemens was graduated from the university with the class of 1915. She was active in many college affairs, taking a special interest in newspaper work on the campus. She was press agent for the Farquhar of last year.

Following graduation, Miss Clemens accepted a contract to lecture on the beauties of California. She gave her first lecture in San Francisco, and since then has spoken in several cities. Five thousand feet of motion picture film are used to illustrate her talk on the Yosemite. A project for her to speak in Eastern centers on California natural scenery she has now under consideration.

U. C. GRADS NOT IN CLOSE TOUCH

Graduate Manager Urges the Closer Co-operation of Alumni.

BERKELEY, Feb. 11.—University of California alumni neither pay enough attention to campus affairs or are allowed sufficient influence in the management of the university, John A. Stroud, graduate manager at the university, Stroud has contributed a paper to "Student Opinion," in which he makes a plea for further alumni activity.

Stroud points out the interest taken in their respective universities by eastern college graduates, and he believes the result is altogether advantageous. In the recent choice of a coach for California he declared the surprising number of suggestions came from alumni. Stroud sums up the situation in the following paragraph:

"At the universities where the alumni play more of a governing part than they do in the University of California, they are more closely connected with the university. In the University of California, where the government is almost entirely in the hands of the student body one would note that probably its policy is not so closely in touch with the needs of the university as it might be. It might be an excellent idea in re-organizing the constitution of the U. C. to have a governing body, or at least in the work of bringing the alumni into touch with the University. This could be done by electing to the alumni the opportunity of having a representative in the solution of the problems of government."

Hindu Lawyer to Be Guest of Honor

Noted Pastor to Be Heard at University

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 11.—Dr. John Boyd of the First Presbyterian church of Portland, Oregon, will address the University of California Y. M. C. A. at the third Friday meeting, Friday afternoon at 5, in Stiles Hall. The subject of the series is "A College Man's Problem in Religion."

PACKERS ASK CITY TO CLOSE STREET

The Scheme of Improvement to Plant Requires Space.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 11.—Another step toward the greater development of the plant of the Alaska Packers' Association on the north waterfront is being taken, the company requesting the city council to close Naitlium street as a public thoroughfare. About one out of five thousand people know of the location of this street. It is a black long and west of Ferry street, running through the holdings of the packers' association. At present it is used as a vegetable market.

Captain J. F. Moser of the association, when interviewed today, said that the closing of the street is a step toward the extension of the plant. He says that Naitlium street is not leading to any place in particular. The captain declared that the closing of the thoroughfare will be of great aid to the company, as it is that for future improvements of its property.

Breeding of the Alaska Packers' hatch in Alameda harbor started as soon as the ships now there leave for their annual trip to Alaska. A dill is now being built about the land of the Oakland waterfront company to hold the city's which will be pumped from the basin. The latter is to be extended inland and made to accommodate a large number of ships.

Captain Moser declared that as soon as Alameda harbor is widened and something is done to put the city street close to the bridges across the harbor, that the Alaska Packers will then start large improvements and give this city one of the largest plants on the coast.

MARIE TYSON SAYS DWIGHT WAY BID NO ENGAGEMENT

Marie Tyson rushed to the telephone to express their pleasure.

Miss Tyson cut their enthusiasm with a decided statement that she is not engaged. It was all a mistake. It kept her busy most of the morning diverting misdirected good wishes and engagement cups. Kales of course is silent.

Mrs. M. W. Kales, when asked about the rumored engagement of her son, complained that she had been called up by various interested friends. "I don't know anything about it," she declared. "I'm his mother and he certainly has told me nothing of the kind."

"I am not engaged," Miss Tyson declared today, "and I have no intention of getting married. The announcement is a mistake. One of the morning papers rang me up last night and asked if I was engaged and I said I was not. Then the announcement is published anyway. It is not true."

Pheasants Afford Feast for Sports

State Game Farm Birds on Banquet Menu

HAYWARD, Feb. 11.—Bright plumaged pheasants to the number of a round dozen furnished the pheasant-course at banquet given to the elite of the local sporting world last evening.

Only one feature could have detracted from the complete success of the feast from a sportsman's point of view. The plump birds, also, had met their death on the block, to royl right over coops and wood to at last fall to the guns of a monogamous sportsman hidden in butts could they claim as the prelude to their Waterloo.

And the Hayward sportsmen mounted the end of the beheaded game even as they picked the bones and toasted "an open shooting season for pheasants."

Pheasant, one of many pheasant-raisers of this city, gave the pheasant dinner last night to a number of other well-known amateur wild game fanciers. How to raise a sufficient number of pheasants in Alameda county to warrant an open season for this game was the principal object of the banquet.

The guests were: Justice of the Peace Charles Brown, Dr. F. W. Brown, F. I. Lemons, Supervisor Charles W. Hoyer, Ed. Haas, Victor La Grava, Bud Worrel, William N. Dicks, Jacob Harder, Cooper, Dr. C. A. Willis, Peter J. Crosby and Harold Neek.

Such a banquet was made possible largely through the endeavors of the State Game Farm here, which, carrying out the plans of the State Game Commission, has fostered the domestic rearing of game in this end of the county.

BIOLOGICAL REPORT ON TRINITY MTS.

University Issues Work on the Survey of Northern Part of State.

BERKELEY, Feb. 11.—A report of a recent biological survey of the Trinity mountain area in Trinity, Siskiyou and Shasta counties, has just been published by the university in which remarkable results are set forth. The reports are based on collections of over a thousand mammals which have been donated by Miss Anna Alexander in the California museum of vertebrate zoology.

Two new species of mammals are described. One is a curious animal called the mountain beaver and the other is a new kind of kangaroo rat. Flying squirrels of a species only lately discovered, are also pictured.

Miss Alexander and Miss Louise Kellogg, who accompanied her, were successful in trapping one of the rarest mammals in the Trinity area, the Shasta Weasel. She secured two specimens in her mountain search, both of which are considered very valuable.

It is the smallest species of weasel known from California, and only three had ever been taken before. Two Oregon Shasta Weasels, and one from the Trinity area, were also taken. These discoveries in reporting these various discoveries all the ascertained facts are given in regard to the habits and distribution of the animals.

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts.

OMIT ALL MEAT FROM DIET IF YOU FEEL RHEUMATIC OR BLADDER BOOTHERS.

The American man and woman must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much meat and all our food in the urine so it is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out. They weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Advertisement.

Elliott Will Insist Upon Perfect Condition Oaks Have Salt Lake Trip to Make Before Opening Day

The Tiger leader is after two star big league hurriers to strengthen his pitching staff, and then Patterson's team will be all fit and ready to start the 1916 Club, and Speed Matheson of Alameda. The latter will cover left field. Saroni and Crosswait will do the receiving for Woodward and De Lisle.

Clinton Prough, the tall Georgia gentleman, is ten pounds lighter this year than last, and looks to be in better condition than at any time since he came to us from Conuskey's crop of twellers. Prough has been twisting in hard luck and losing so many close games that it got on his nerves. With Prough, Klaviter and Chabek in form, the Oaks will have three giant right-handers capable of doing all the pitching if necessary. Boyd, Reer, Prutett, Martin and the others will want their share though.

Frederick B. Alexander of New York, tennis player of international fame, does not believe that the U. S. Tennis Association will be able to pass a rule professionalizing racketeers who sell sporting goods.

Alexander, who with Harold H. Hackett, won the national doubles title for four successive years, 1907 to 1910, inclusive, has been a member of the U. S. Tennis team in 1908, like a good many others, can't see what difference there is in what a man sells, just so long as he doesn't cheat.

He asserts that there is no doubt in the minds of a lot of Americans who want to commercialize his tennis prowess and fame to the best advantage, he could make millions of money and become a great fortune, by becoming a purveyor of the game.

ALTENHEIM TO BUILD ADDITION

The Growth of German Old People's Home Necessitates Change.

So rapid has been the growth of "Altenheim," the German old people's home, that the directors have decided to build an additional wing to the main building to cost $100,000. The additional quarters will contain sixty rooms and will add much to the comfort and accommodation of the elderly German people living there.

At present there are one hundred and fifty inmates of the home, but with the new wing completed at least two hundred can be housed and cared for. At present there are eighty-two women and twenty men living at "Altenheim." Since the home was founded nine years ago it has cared for 341 persons.

"Altenheim" covers about seven acres of ground on a high knoll in Upper Fruitvale, which affords a splendid view of Oakland, the bay territory and surrounding foothills. Because of the splendid site and the warmer climate, this place was selected for the home by the founders of the institution in preference to a location that was offered in San Francisco.

At the recent meeting of the officers in the German House, San Francisco, and when it was decided to enlarge the home the following officers and directors were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year:

President, Albert Kayser; first vice-president, Theo. Gier; second vice-president, Mrs. Elise Bahr; recording secretary, J. Lueh; financial secretary, H. Dunkel; treasurer, William Wertsch; assistant secretary and manager, Franz Jacoby; other directors, Carl Albig, John C. Wunder, Robert Frost, Mrs. E. Hagemann and Mrs. Pauline Westerfeld.

METALS AGAIN RULE
ON STOCK EXCHANGE
Upward Swing Begun on Thursday Is

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The upward swing of metal shares on the Stock Exchange of yesterday was continued at the opening this morning and activity in the various leaders was begun with renewed vigor. Representative shares, however, were under professional pressure and irregular prices ruled for a time after the opening. Trading was moderately active and the volume of business transacted was larger than has been the case on most days of late, though much of it at first was of a tentative and professional character. All copper stocks were at higher prices, with Butte and Superior leading in the gains. Anaconda was on the previous day. This stock opened in the gains and advanced sharply to 88, going even higher later. Anaconda was strong at first and held all day, opening at 89 and soon gaining to over 90, but not making any further sensational gains. Inspiration was up to 47 1/2 early in the day and held all gains.

Railroad issues were quiet with the exception of New York Central, which on its remarkable showing of earnings advanced by variable gain and some of the other issues in the class strengthening in sympathy slightly. City of New York, the gains made by the leaders, such as Mexican Petroleum, California Petroleum and others, were slight. United States Steel and most war shares were strong and the former advanced by fractions over a point, as did Crucible Steel and American Smelting, and American Can gained even more. The bond market was steady and fairly active with Anglo-French bonds selling better at a slight advance.

PROFESSIONAL ADVISOR

NEW YORK FINANCIAL NEWS BUREAU—Has the spring rally started in the stock market with the activity and strength displayed by the copper issues? This question is being asked by many points of view and from many investigations. It is safe to say there is an increasing confidence in the change strengthening, so far as securities outside of the railroad list are concerned.

There is no doubt of a spreading belief that the copper shares have at last begun to discount obviously sound bullish conditions in that industry. The copper stocks are reported based to a considerable extent on the needs of the copper miners, which are known to be over-producing in preparation for a bull campaign in Northern Pacific is found in conservative quarters.

GOVERNOR TALKS OVER LONG WIRE

Johnson Addresses Washington Banquet Through Telephone.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 11.—Governor Johnson talked tonight over the long distance transcontinental telephone from his gubernatorial residence to the members of the National Chamber of Commerce, assembled at a banquet in the New Willard hotel, Washington.

The connection between the governor's residence and the banquet room at the Willard was made at 8:35 Pacific time. There was no delay, and in a flash Governor Johnson and President Fayer of the Chamber of Commerce were exchanging greetings.

After listening to a message from the National chamber, read over the east-west wire by President Fayer, Governor Johnson then telephoned across the continent the following address:

"To our president and to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, I convey the very fondest greetings of the state of California. The west no longer is the far west. The thousands of miles have obliterated distance, and the Pacific slope tonight is no farther from the Atlantic slope and our national city than the voice of a call.

By common thought and feeling Mason and Dixon's line has been erased and there now a dividing line between east and west. The last remaining shadow

Postoffice Inspectors Seek Missing Man

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Postoffice inspectors have begun a search for John H. Putnam, head of the firm of John H. Putnam & Company, dealers in investment securities in this city. They were informed that Putnam left a note at his office instructing his manager to pay off the employees and "shut up shop."

The government agents expressed the belief that Putnam sailed for England this morning on the steamship Baltic. Putnam & Company began business here on December 15 last, for the sale of all company stocks on the partial payment plan. The postoffice authorities declare they carried on a campaign for customers throughout the country by mail, promising returns of fifty per cent, on investments. It was estimated by postoffice inspectors that the firm's receipts aggregated between $300,000 and $400,000 in cash. They assert that thousands of persons were induced to invest their savings by alluring promises of returns.

of sectionalism is gone and we talk to you tonight over three thousand miles of space, as a part of you.

"The Chamber of Commerce of the United States with its keynote, service to American business, stands a potent force in our national life to which every part of our country wishes to contribute. As you justly say, you have focused in intelligent opinion American business, and regarding this function, you make of our people one people, indissolubly bound in the highest aspirations and the noblest ideals. And we of California, no longer separated from you by nature's impenetrable barriers, but now as your neighbors, unite with you in your efforts and congratulate you upon your achievement."

TRONA CLAIM JUMP STORY TOLD COURT

Engineer Declares That He Was Told to Occupy Old Locations.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Feb. 11.—Testimony that H. E. Lee, who directed the armed invasion of valuable potash claims at Seaford Lake, had instructed him in 1914 to re-locate previous claims of the California Trona Company, was drawn yesterday from E. D. Rizer, an engineer employed by Lee, at the hearing being held here in the suit to eject the Trona Company from the land.

Rizer is the principal witness for the Lee interests in their fight for possession of the 25,000 acres of potash land on the desert of San Bernardino county, Virginia objections were made to questions of attorneys from the trona company which drew the information from the witness.

In answering the questions, after the court had overruled objections, Rizer stated that Lee had furnished him with a map showing the locations held by the trona company, directing him to re-locate on them. At the same time the witness said, Lee explained that he formerly had been an attorney for the trona company. Attorneys for the trona company said that they expected to prove by the testimony of Rizer that Lee and his associates knew of the prime possession of the land by the defendants when the property was invaded in 1910.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Two hundred of a distinguished list of 500 banquetters who attended a dinner given last night to Chicago's new Catholic archbishop, Rev. Joseph W. Egan, were taken ill of ptomaine poisoning after the soup course.

The archbishop did not partake of the soup, nor did governor Hiram, who was among those present, and both escaped. You will note that the church and state are safe, remarked the archbishop, looking at the governor, when it was possible to resume the meal.

The distinguished physicians present, and they agreed in short order on the treatment, namely, mustard and water. It was efficacious, and in half an hour the festivities were resumed.

BOY QUITS JAIL
CELL, MOBILE, Feb. 11.—Morris de Arco, the 13-year-old youth arrested yesterday and charged with stealing a suit of clothes, escaped from the custody of Joseph W. Silverberg, started two deputy marshals into a fair state of amazement yesterday.

The deputies, C. M. Hirscher and A. W. Dewitt, were taking de Arco to Hillsborough for a hearing before the town recorder, Henry P. Bowie. They arrived at San Mateo at lunch time and decided to leave de Arco with Chief of Police McComb of San Mateo while they went up to Hillsborough for the midday repast.

"If I see you sooner than you expect," said de Arco.

"Look him up in a cell until we get back," they told McComb.

The chief looked de Arco up in one of the best little cells in the San Mateo jail.

While Hirscher and Dewitt were having luncheon at the Hillsborough town hall the prisoner walked in on them and said: "I was hungry, too; I didn't think I'd wait."

He reached into his trousers' pocket and pulled out a bunch of keys. "Give these to the chief of police of San Mateo with my compliments," he said.

HIGH SKIRTS HAD FOR MAN'S MORALS
TOLEDO, O., Feb. 11.—Councilman Stanley Krzyzaniak has prepared an ordinance to be introduced next Monday providing fine and imprisonment for women wearing on the street outer skirts higher than three inches above the ankle.

Krzyzaniak originally drafted the bill to read "one inch above shoe top," but changed it when he noted the height of present-day shoes.

"High skirts are bad for the morals," says Krzyzaniak. Women who have heard of the ordinance have sent up clamorous opposition to it.
